VOL. XXV BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 18, 1894. NO 3

Pennsylvania Loses.

The Injunction Bill Dismissed.

VALENTINE COMPANY FREE TO SHIP OVER THE CENTRAL RAILROAD.

The Nittany Valley Agreement Declared Unconstitutional and Void. The Main Points in the Court's Decision.

On Tuesday Judge Furst filed his decision in the case of the Bald Eagle Valley and Pennsylvania Railroad Companies against The Nittany Valley Railroad Company, the Valentine Iron Company and J. W. Gephart individually. The decision is unusually long and doubtless one of the most able constructions of law ever handed down in these courts. In his decision the Court says:

"This case was heard upon demurrer to complainant's Bill. The demurrer must be taken as admitting all facts in the Bill, which are well pleaded.

"The facts are numerous and complicated, owing to changes of partnerships and corporations, and the various allegations in the bill."

"For greater clearness, and that a full understanding of the case may be had," the Court then reviewed at length the Bill of particulars, together with the demurrer thereto. As the majority of our readers are already famaliar with these, and as space will not permit, we are obliged to confine ourselves to only the most important sayings in the decision, as it affects Bellefonte and its interests. After reviewing the Bill and demurrer thereto the Court said:

"The demurrer raises several important questions to be considered in the disposition of this case. We may group these questions and propositions generally into three heads.

"First. That said covenant is in restraint of trade.

"Second. That it is against public policy.

"Third. That it offends against Section 4 of the 17th Article of the Constitution of this State, in that it was an attempt to control a parallel or competing line of Railroad, thus creating a monopoly, unauthorized by law and void."

Various other legal reasons are then assigned, arising out of the nature of the case etc. The Court says:

"In the consideration of the case we will first consider the nature of the covenant, whether or not it is such covenant as would run with the land, without reference to the fact of the mortgage. We are very clear in our own mind that this covenant does not run with the land. That it is but a personal collateral convenant, binding (if otherwise valid) only the parties thereto. In the present case the covenant does not touch the land. It is not annexed to the land in any lease or conveyance thereof. It relates to something entirely distinct from the land itself. It is future in its being—something which may or may not happen."

The Court then reviewed at great length the law of Covenants, citing numerous authorities in support of his position. The decision then states:

"We have reviewed the law to this extent, not because it is absolutely necessary to a proper decision of the case, but in deference to the position assumed by the learned counsel for complainants, who maintained that this agreement created a covenant running with the land.

"Even were it such a covenant as contended for, it could not be revived by parol against an unbound assignnee, as claimed in the 26th Section of the Bill, because being a covenant real, it inheres to the land and the statute of frauds would require its acceptance on the part of an assignee not bound to be in writing. Mere acts in pais would not impress the covenant upon the lands so as to bind the assignee.

"We are also of opinion that this argument offends against Sections one, three and four of Article 17, of the Constitution of this state and therefore it is null and void. The Nittany Valley railroad company, a party to the agreement, was incorparated under the act of 1868. It must be presumed in law to be, whatever it may by possibility become under its charter and the laws of this commonwealth. It has become at this time a part or parcel of a parallel or competing line of railroad with complainants. It is now a connecting branch with the Central Railroad of Penna. running from Bellefonte to Mill Hall, and is, therefore, parallel with the Bald Eagle and will compete with it for traffic in the the same territory; and this was seen when the agreement was executed, as there is a provision made against the happening of any such contingency.

"Section 1 of article 17 declares that all railroads and canals shall be public highways, and all railroads and canal companies shall be common carriers, &c. They shall receive and transport each the others passengers, tonnage and cars, loaded or empty, without delay or discrimination.

"Section 3 provides inter alia that all individuals * * * shalll have equal rights to have persons and property transported over railroads, &c., and no undue discrimination shall be made in charge for, and in facilities for transportation of freight or passengers, &c., &c.

"Section 4 is the familiar provision against consolidation of stock, property and franchises of parallel and competing lines of railroad. This agreement, if enforced, would defect all these provisions.

"It is the consignor and consignee who have the legal right to route their freight, to say how and by whom it shall be shipped, and over what line of railway, &c.

"The law vests the management of a railroad in a board of directors and officers of its own. It is their duty to manage the affairs of the road, and the law requires these officers to perform these duties, incident to freight and passenger traffic, according to the wish and desire of the individual shipper, under reasonable rules and regulations of course; but such as do not defeat the right of shipper to direct the mode and route of shipment.

"A previous agreement on the part of a railroad corporation with an other corporation, that it will not observe this right, but that it will ship the freight consigned only over a particular line of railway and no other, and that it will exercise all its power and influence to prevent any line of railway to complete in this respect, is so clearly ultra vires that it needs no citation of authority other than its constitutional provision to support it. This agreement is so clearly against public policy and favoring monopoly, that we do not hesitate to pronounce it void, as well on this ground as that it is ultra vires.

"We are satisfied that this agreement is void as being in restraint of trade and as against public policy, and also as creating a monopoly as to all the parties—Respondents in this case.

"The rule of law which recognizes the rights of the public to have the benefit of fair and healthy competition, and to require that equal facilities and reasonable rates shall be secured to all, does not condemn a contract between railway companies operating competing lines, which is made for the sole purpose of preventing financial ruin to one or the other, so long as the purpose and effect of such an agreement is not to deprive the public of its right to have adequate facilities and fixed and reasonable rates. It is only when it transcends these limits and purposes, and when it deprives the public of all competition, and when it arrogates to itself the right to prevent any other railway from being built within the territory, and binds the parties to prevent such competition, and supplants the rights of consignors and consignees to ship their freight and traffic by such route as they may desire, that it violates the fundamental law of this Commonwealth. This is the text of the principle announced by the Circuit Court of Kansas in the recent case of United States vs Trans—Missouri Freight Association. Reported in 53, Federal Reporter, page 440.

"The principles involved in the present case are similar to the case of Tardy vs —— 81 Va. 553. S. C. 59 Amer. Rep. 676. [The court here gives several citations as authorities on the position taken.]

"We have thus far considered the case as upon a continuing covenant. But the covenant of whatever nature it may be, (if valid in law) became divested by the sale of the land on the mortgage, and it was thereby rendered extinct. The mortgage being prior in point of time, every interest in land created by the mortgagor subsequently thereto was swept away by a sale thereunder. [Here follow a large number of authoritative citations.]

"This sale not only released the Valentine Iron Company, the present owner, but also having divested the title of the Valentine Ore Land Association, it by operation of law, released all other parties joining with them upon the principle that the covenant having become impossible of performance as against the owner of the land, all other persons contracting upon the implied continuance of the contract are likewise released.

"The Valentine Ore Land Association was the only party to the convenant which could have any freight to ship—The Nittany Valley railroad company had none. It was but a common carrier, and contracted under the implied condition that the freight should be furnished by the land owners.

"For the reasons given we are of opinion that the covenant in the agreement is void as to the Respondents. That it is not such a convenant as a court of Equity would enforce. It follows, therefore, that the demurrer must be sustained and the Bill be dismissed.

THE DECREE.

And now, January 15th, 1894, this cause came on to be heard on Demurrer to Complaints' Bill, and was argued by counsel, and after due consideration thereof, it is adjudged and decreed that the Demurrer be sustained, and the Bill of Complainants be dismissed with costs.

BY THE COURT.
A. O. FURST,
President Judge.

SWITHIN SHORTLIDGE'S CASE.

The case of Prof. Swithin C. Shortlidge, who is still confined in the Media jail, instead of righteously being committed to an asylum where he could receive proper medical treatment, is exciting considerable newspaper comment throughout the state. Relative thereto the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph of Friday, January 12th, says:

It is doubtful if there ever was a case where the naked technicality of the law was so strained against the interest of humanity as in the instance of the unfortunate citizen lying helpless, and suffering cruel torments for want of proper care and treatment, in the Media Jail, on account of having killed his wife. The Coroner's jury, upon ample and reliable medical and lay testimony, promptly declared this crime the result of insanity. The Court was asked to appoint a Commission in Lunacy, and after strange delay a report was made, setting forth, not, in specific words, that the prisoner is "insane," but that, in their opinion, "his welfare requires his" "confinement in a proper hospital for the "insane,"

After sitting upon this matter for some days, Judge Clayton declines to permit the helpless defendant to be taken from jail, where his distressful performances have excited the profound pity of all beholders, on the ground that the finding of the Commission is "fatally defective." The Judge goes on to say that while there is [illegible] the prisoner to a hospital for the insane "this is not encugh"; that "the welfare of many men of sound mind requires that they should be confined and treated in a hospital for the insane." Wonder how often the Courts of this State have dared to commit men of sound minds to institutions created and sustained solely for the confinement and treatment of men of unsound minds? This, truly, is a most extraordinary case of Dogberryism, and one that must excite the criticism and condemnation of every fair-minded and humane person.

The Committee on Lunacy of the State Board of Charities has found no task so onerous, so sad, yet so imperative, as the rescue of persons laboring under mental darkness and suffering, from the jails and almhouses of this State. The whole trend and purpose of recently enacted law, and the intelligent administration thereof by the Courts in these enlightened times, has been to prevent the repetition and continuances of just such a heart-sickening scene as has aroused the deepest sympathy of the citizens of Media and vicinity. The Court may be standing in this instance squarely upon the letter of the law, but, if so, the top of its head certainly is touching the floor through leaning backwards. It is one of the most remarkable decisions in the record of the Courts of this or any other State.

COULDN'T CATCH CURTIN.

Here is a hitherto unpublished story of the venerable war governor, Hon. Andrew G. Curtin, which comes to us on good authority.

When the Democratic leaders of the state were casting about for an available candidate for the party's nomination for congressman-at-large a few weeks ago, in their desperate search for a prominent Democrat who could carry sufficient personal weight to offset at least in part the universal disgust at the management of public affairs by the party in power at Washington, it is said that they finally determined upon Ex-Governor Curtin as the best man to be nominated and all the force at their command was put forth to induce him to accept the sacrifice.

According to the story, some of the leaders called upon the sturdy old veteran and urged him to shoulder the "honor." They urged that with his fullness of years and high reputation it would be just the proper thing for him to round out his honorable career by accepting a term in Congress to take the lead again among the Democrats in upholding the interests of Pennsylvania at Washington.

The aged governor is said to have listened patiently to the arguments set forth. Then without hesitation but with great deliberation he gave the delegation one of those unmistakable glances for which he is famous and said: "I know I have been greatly honored by the people of this commonwealth; I know I am an old man with perhaps one foot in the grave; but thank Heaven, gentlemen, I still have my mental faculties! I will not be your candidate."

T. P. RYNDER HEARD FROM.

Hon. T. P. Rynder, the great Greenback—Labor—People's party agitator of former years, and now a strong "Service Pension" advocate, writes the following letter to the Bellefonte Republican, in this place:

ERIE, Pa., Jan. 8, '94.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—

Your Editorial, "Issue Greenbacks," in last week's paper is in the right and probably only possible direction for the restoration of work and prosperity.

There has never been a panic in this country that was not brought on by a contraction of the currency, and no panic has been broken but by the issuance and circulation of more money among the people.

Your proposition to issue enough greenbacks to supply the estimated deficiency of revenue would make the Spring of 1894 open with a business boom such as this country has not known recently.

A better plan, however, would be to put every honorably discharged soldier not now receiving a pension on the pension rolls at twelve dollars a month—the rate now received by Mexican war pensioners—and raise to that figure all below it; and provide for the payment of all pensions in new issues of legal tender greenbacks to be made in small denominations, and the bills paid out in each locality (or county seat) to the pensioners until the volume of money should reach that demanded by the Pennsylvania Republican platform of 1893, viz: $40 per capita; or as the Populist demand, $50 per capita. Such a measure would give this country a certainty of twenty years of industrial activity fully equal to the war period, and would enable us to wipe out the last vestige of national debt, and let the greatest republic of the world start out as she is capable of doing, and ought to do—free from chattel slavery, free from debt slavery, and free from dependence on any foreign nation for money.

Every effort to put foreign manufacturers on an equality with our own, in our markets, should be resisted. I advocated the essential principles of the McKinley bill in running for Congress '84 and '88. Let the tariff alone and give us more money and less misery.

Yours truly, T. P. RYNDER.

A KENTUCKIAN'S PRAYER.

"Col. Throckmorton, a distinguished Kentuckian in his day," said Charles F. Joy, whose seat the committee on election a few days ago decided to give to his contestant, Mr. O'Neill, "Col. Throckmorton was once upon a time in substantially the same predicament that I have been in since I became connected with the house of representatives. Col. Throckmorton was once a passenger on a wooden sailing vessel on the high seas when a frightful storm burst and the vessel became waterlogged. The ship was pitching and dancing about on the crest of the tempestuous ocean like a straw in a whirlpool. The passengers were crying and appealing to heaven for aid. Col. Throckmorton, with all the gravity of a Kentucky gentleman, viewed the scene with composure. The storm increased in fury. The sailors were running about, the officers were shouting, and everything was confussion. About this stage of the proceedings the colonel edged over to the captain and said:

"'Tell me, is there really any danger?'

"'You see what the rest of the passengers are doing," replied the captain, 'they are making their peace with God. If you ever do any praying, colonel, you might do so with perfect propriety at this juncture. The vessel can't live five minutes. The next pitch or two will send her to the bottom with all on board.'

"The colonel straightened himself, lifted his hat, looking up to the scowling sky with a reverent mien, and exclaimed:

"'Almighty God, if you ever intend to do Col. Throckmorton, of Kentucky, a favor, now is the time to do it.'

"Col. Throckmorton," concluded Mr. Joy, lived to tell this story himself, which illustrates that a man should not despair until the last."

MILLIONS, BUT NO USE FOR THEM.

It has been said that speculation gives the first sign of a coming panic and the first of a recovery from it. Last week there was more than $92,000,000 lying idle in the banks of New York alone, and although inducements were offered to borrowers they did not put in an appearance. With all this money at hand, and to be had cheaply, the stock market at the middle of January was about as dull as ever, and that, too, in the face of large shipments last week from Chicago to the seaboard. The uncertainty about the tariff and revenue bills undoubtedly accounts for the dullness in the speculative market as in all others.

JUDGE LYNCH BUSY.

An Exhibition of "Prairies Justice" Given in Kansas.

RUSSELL, Kan. January 14—At 1 o'clock this morning there was a terrible exhibition of paririe justice here and three men met death at the hands of Judge Lynch. No such outbreak of the old time swift frontier justice has been witnessed in Kansas for years. The mob was one of the quietest and most determined that ever came together. It was a fiercely earnest and wholly heartless mob also, for the victims were not given even time to pray until they were dropped into eternity.

The victims were J. G. Burton, William Gay, and the latter's son, John Gay, who had lived together on Burton's farm. They were confessedly guilty of the murder of Fred Dinniny last July. Dinniny lived with the Burtons eleven miles north, and July 9 he disappeared. Burton had his team and even wore some of his clothes, but said he had gone to Oklahoma with young Gay. Gay returned in a short time and on close questioning confessed that Burton had poisoned Dinniny. The elder Gay attempted to point out the place of burial, but failed. Burton then made a confession that the Gays killed him, and Thursday took the sheriff to a corn field in a ravine, where the body decomposed and mutilated, was found. Indignation ran high and it was with difficalty the three men could be gotten to the jail.

Last night they were taken from jail and conducted to a bridge just outside of town. The ropes were ready and one was put around the neck of each of the men and tied to the stringers. There was no time given for prayers or pleading, but at a signal all three were pushed off the edge and dropped eight or ten feet with all the precision of a professional hanging. To make sure of carrying out their purpose, the mob fired two shots into each body, although, death came quickly by the rope. Then the lynchers rode away quietly and the bodies swung cold and stiff.

MADE MONEY BY WAITING.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—William Gilbert and Martha McBride Burritt, both of Elgin, were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock by Rev. H. O. Rowlands in the parlors of the Great Northern Hotel day before yesterday.

There were no bridesmaids, no ushers, no groomsman, no flowers. The bride was a widow, not quite 40; the groom was formerly a newsdealer at Elgin. With his own and his wife's property he is now almost a millionaire.

Peter Burritt was one of Elgin's wealthy citizens who made money out of real estate. He was worth about $500,000. He and Gilbert were fast friends. He daily visited Gilbert's news store, where he was introduced to Martha McBride by Gilbert as the latter's affianced. He became enamored of the woman and proposed marriage to her. The latter told Gilbert of it, and Gilbert advised her to marry the semi-millionaire, who was 70 years old. The newsdealer also intimated the possibility of a later marriage with himself. Martha acceded to the suggestion and was married to Burritt. Eight months ago she returned to Elgin a widow. Her friendship with Gilbert was renewed, and now Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert are to pass the winter in Florida in the enjoyment of old man Burritt's half a million.

HOW HE GOT HIS MONEY.

A dispatch from Mauch Chunk says: John Call, of Mauch Chunk, a policeman, at the Lehigh Valley Railroad Station, lost a pocket book several weeks ago containing $137 in cash, and to-day the money was returned to him in the most singular manner on record.

The finder must have become conscience stricken. He notified Call by mail anonymously to look for his pocket-book on the outside of a cellar window at his home. Call did so and was made happy by finding its contents intact. The sender of the letter made sure that his identity would not be discovered through his handwritin by clipping the words of which the letter was composed from a newspaper. Call had given up the money as lost.

CLEAN UP THE MUD.

In passing along the streets of Bellefonte, and over the numberless crossings, what an eyesore they all present to anyone who likes to see things kept neat and clean. Mud, the blackest and stickiest kind of mud, from one to six inches deep, is to be found everywhere. Mud which is not alone mud, but filth of the foulest description. Mud which may contain the germs of some of the most deadly and contagious diseases extant.

And the question arises, would it not be a good thing if the Street committee would have the street commissioner clean up the streets, and put them in at least semi-decent looking order. What better time than now for such work? The weather could not be more favorable. The mud will hardly get deeper. There will never be more idle men anxious, willing and needing to work, and when then could a more favorable opportunity be had, than just the present? Here is a chance for Dr. Dartt, as chairman of the street committee, to do something that will be a benefit as well as a probable preventative of disease in the treacherous weather of February and March. Therefore, clean up the streets.

ITALY IN DESPERATE STRAITS.

The straits to which the Italians are reduced may be inferred from the news that Premier Crispi will demand that he be created dictator when Parliament meets, and that if it refuses to comply it will be dissolved and an appeal made to the country. He demands that he be given dictatorial powers for six months, and that they extend to financial and administrative reforms.

In ancient time six months was the usual period of the dictatorship. The Senate nominated the dictator and he was appointed by one of the consuls. Commonly he was appointed for a single purpose, as repelling an enemy, and his authority was limited only as to the expenditure of the public money. During his term he was not allowed to leave Italy or to appear within the limits of Rome on horseback.

It is curious, the parallel between the first Roman dictatorship and the one now proposed. The first dictator was appointed about 500 B. C., after the establishment of the Republic, to save it from the expelled King Tarquin and his allies within the walls of Rome. When new levies were ordered the people refused to take arms, saying that the nobles had seized all the land, and that they would be no worse off under a King than they were under the Republic. The land question is a pressing one in Italy now, and one of the first measures to be laid before Parliament by the Premier is a land bill similar to that which the English Parliament adopted to satisfy the Irish. It is to regulate the relations between landlords and tenants and provide a way by which the tenants may become freeholders. The only way to do that will be for the government to buy out the landlords who will sell, as in Ireland, and then sell to the tenants on time.

The dictatorship is an old institution, older than the Roman people, who took it from their neighbors, but has never flourished among any nations save those of Latin origin. In modern times it was frequently established in South America. Among the northern nations men with dictatorial powers have arisen, but they obtained them by usurpation. The races of Teutonic blood have had too much self-reliance and been too jealous of their freedom to deliberately confer upon any man more than regal authority, which is the authority exercised by a dictator. If Crispi's demand is complied with he will have almost absolute power over the finances and administration of the Kingdom. Nothing like this has been proposed in modern time in any country of the rank of Italy unless it was in France when Napoleon was made First Consul. Nothing could more fully illustrate the desperate straits to which Italy has been reduced by weak or bad government.

TO BE DONE IN STYLE.

This is the way the Lock Haven Express puts it: The new passenger coaches for the Nittany Valley railroad were made to order for the Santa Fe road and are first-class in every particular. They are four feet longer than the Pennsylvania standard coaches and are fitted with double sections reversible seats, so that two persons in one seat can sit in a reverse position. Colored porters in uniform will take care of each car and also act as brakeman. The officials of the Central Pennsylvania railroad, better known locally as the Nittany Valley, propose to furnish the patrons of their road with first-class passenger service.

VACCINATION AND SMALLPOX.

The State board of health has instructed Secretary Benjamin Lee of that body to prepare a statistical and other facts relating to vaccination as a preventive of small pox and send it to the various newspapers of the State, to the end that our people may be enabled to act intelligently on a matter so essential to their safety. This action has been deemed necessary owing to the efforts being made to deceive and mislead the public on this matter.

OF INTEREST TO Y. P. S. C. E.

HARRISBURG, January 16.—The executive committee of the Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor union met here to-night and decided to hold the state convention at York October 10, 11 and 12 of this year. It was also decided to hold a Christian Endeavor outing at Mt. Gretna July 24, 25 and 26.

BIG FIRE AT DUBOIS.

The Wind Was Blowing a Gale and Fanned the Flames.

DuBois, Pa., January 12.—At 11.45 last night fire broke out in Grier Bros. hardware store. An alarm was promptly given and the companies responded promptly. The wind was blowing a gale and it was apparent that a great fight was at hand if the big hardware store and manufacturing establishment was to be saved from total destruction and the adjoining buildings, including the Knarr block and the Commercial hotel block with it. The fire started in one of the upper stories and apparently near the middle of the long building and was very difficult to reach.

The wind caused the National hotel across the street to stand in peril, and the guests began to hustle out and get out their baggage. The wind soon changed and blew towards the rear of the building. The fire had by this time eaten its way to the roof and through the side walls to the top story of the Commercial. The guests of that hotel gathered their effects together and removed them. By 1 o'clock the interior of the Grier building was burned out entirely with its valuable stock, machinery, etc. The stubborn fight made by the fire department stopped the destruction before the Commercial was totally destroyed.

Beringer's barber shop, Guinzburg's store and Guinzburg & McCullouge s billiard rooms were on the first floor of the eastern part of the Commercial building and the contentsof all were removed except a part of thebilliard room equipment. Each of these parties met with some loss. The Commercial hotel loss, on building and contents, cannot be estimated.

At 1-30 the rear walls of the Grier building fell and the principal attention of the fire department was directed to the Commercial. The electric light wires had been so interfered with that the arc and incandescent lights were cut off and the town was left without light except for the gas and the lurid glare from the top of the burning block.

The stock in the store of Grier Bros., just inventoried, amounted to $29,000, the building cost $10,000 and the machinery, manufactured stock, implements and fixtures raised the total to about $50,000. The stock was insured for $17,000 and Mr. G. E. Grier said he thought there was $5,000 on the building. The manufacturing department was employing twenty-eight hands. This is the third time the firm has been burned out on the same spot within eight years, and each time losing a good building and one of the largest hardware stores in this part of the country.

At 2.30 a.m. the fire was safely under control. The carpets and furniture on the two upper floors of the third story part of the Commercial were ruined, entailing a loss to Joe Bensinger of from $5,000 to $6,000, andtabout the same to the building, which isowned by W. J. Sener, of Lancaster. Mr. Bensinger was well insured.

The total loss of all parties will foot up from $60,000 to 65,000.

EATE OF A GRIP VICTIM.

Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 12.—J. Miner Woodworth, one of the most prominent and wealthy farmers of Luzerne county, residing near Shickshinny, is dead at his home to-night.

He was in this city Thursday attending to business and returned to his home in the evening apparently in his usual health and frame of mind. He arose this morning feelingquite unwell, suffering from grip. The disease rapidly increased in severity and affected his head with particular violence.

At 7 o'clock to-night he suddenly arose from the couch and dashed out of the door. His family followed in pursuit and the chase continued along the country road for a quarter of a mile, when the sufferers saw that the pursuers were close upon him he took from his pocket a large knife and drew it across his throat, falling dead in his tracks. He was about 50 years of age, quite wealthy and one of the most prominent farmers in this county.

HINTS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

In promulgating esoteric cogitations or articulating superficial sentimentalities and philosophical or psychological observations, beware of platitudinous ponderosity. Let your statements possess a clarified conciseness, compacted comprehensibleness, coalescent consistency and a concentrated cogency. Eschew all conglomerations of flatulent garrulity, jejune babblement and asinine affectations. Let your extemporaneous descantings and unpremeditated expatiations have intelligibility and veracious vivacity without rhodomontade or thrasonical bombast; sedulously avoid all polysyllabic profundity, psittaceous vacuity, ventriloquial verbosity and grandiloquent vapidity; shun double entendres, prurient jocosity and pestiverous profanity, whether obscurent or apparent.

In other words, talk plainly, sensibly and truthfully.

NO MORE SMALLPOX.

Reading, Pa., Jan. 10.—The taking down of the last red patch on a house in this city where smallpox existed leaves Reading entirely free of this disease, with only a limited number of patients in the Emergency hospital three miles away. The officials have taken active precautions to prevent any further outbreak, and it is confidently believed that the disease has been eliminated. The state board of health will be called on to give this news the same prominence as it did the existence of the contagion here.

DIED IN ALASKA.

Rev. John R. McFarland, a nephew of Mrs. Rev. Dr. O. O. McClean, of Lewistown and who was a member of the Huntingdon Presbytery, died recently in Alaska where he was employed as a missionary under the auspices of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions.

At the urgent entreaty of his wife, he visited the World's Fair last summer and his friends in the United States. He had just returned from his trip in fine spirits and with completely restored health. Upon his return to Alaska, Mr. McFarland started on a missionary tour to an island about 20 miles from Juneau. He was found dead, sitting in a chair on December 9 last, in a lonely habitation surrounded by Indians. The remains were interred by the natives. Not until a week later did his wife and children learn of the sudden death. The wife's grief was pitiable The news was brought to San Francisco by a steamer. On account of their arrangements for a winter in Alaska, Mrs. McFarland and her child will be forced to spend many months alone among the ignorant Indians.

ROCKAFELLOW IN JAIL.

Wilkes-Barre, Jan. 12.—F. V. Rockafellow, the ex-banker, convicted of embezzlement, and who was sentenced to-day to pay a fine of $1,200, the cost of the prosecution and undergo an imprisonment in the Eastern Penitentiary for the period of two years and two months, was assigned to cell number one in the county prison here pending his removal. His quarters and his fare at the jail are to be the same as any other prisoner. On entering his cell he sat upon his cot, bowed his head and wept bitterly, and to-night he is completely broken down. An appeal is to be made to the Supreme Court for a writ of allocatur. If this can be obtained from this court he may be admitted to bail. The argument comes before the Supreme Court at Philadelphia to-morrow.

CARLISLE MAY WITHDRAW.

New York, Jan. 12.—A Washington special says Secretary Carlisle is considering an offer of $25.000 a year to act as president and counsel of a big financial institution now being organized by some of the leading capitalists of Ohio and adjoining states. Mr. Carlisle will decide the matter February 1, when he will either resign to accept the offer or continue in office.

Mrs. Carlisle is opposed strongly to her husband's leaving public life, as she has ambitions for him politically and believes he will some day reach the white house. Some of Mr. Carlisle's friends say he will eventually resign, but not, until the financial difficulties and tariff legislation are disposed of.

AN EXCITING COLLISION.

Sunbury, Jan. 12.—The passengers on the Wilkes-Barre train that left here at 5.35 this evening had a narrow escape The train struck the New York time freight that was crossing the main track about a half mile north of the station. The passenger train cut through the freight, throwing five cars down an embankment and breaking some of them into fragments. The baggage and express car was turned partly over and the express messenger, John Dietz, was the only person hurt. His injuries are not serious. The passenger coaches were full of people and the shock created wild excitement among them.

CONSOLIDATION BANK SCANDAL.

Philadelphia, Jan. 12.—National Bank Examiner Hart and the accountants who have been inspecting the books of the Consolidation National Bank which were fraudulently tampered by Paying Teller Baker and Receiving Teller Piersol, finished their work to-day, and reported that the defalcation amounts to $47,000. This is the sum that Baker confessed was stolen. Baker is in jail, not being able to secure bail. Piersol remained in jail over night but was released this afternoon, William H. Dutton entering bail for him in the sum of $7,500.

RUNAWAY AT A FUNERAL.

Braddock, Jan. 12.—This morniug the horses attached to a carriage following the hearse in which were the remains of Edward Simmons, a ten year old boy, took fright and ran away. They collided with and demolished the hearse and wrecked the carriage, the casket was only slightly damaged. The occupants of the carriage were considerable bruised and worse frightened. Another hearse was secured and the funeral proceeded.

FIELD BACK IN JAIL.

New York, Jan.—12.—Edward M. Field, who has been returned to jail here from the Buffalo State Asylum for the Insane as cured, and against whom there are five indictments for forgery and grand larceny, was to-day held in the sums of $50,000 on one charge and $15,000 on another. As no bondsman was forthcoming, Field went back to Ludlow street jail.

HUSBAND AND WIFE DEAD.

Philadelphia, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Frances Heard, who was shot by her drunken husband, John Heard, on the second of this month, died to-day at the hospital, from the effects of her wounds. Heard shot himself in the head after shooting his wife, and he died last week from the delirium tremens and his wounds combined.

HAWAIIAN CORRESPONDENCE.

It May Not Be Transmitted to Congress for Some Time to Come.

Washington, January 12.—The adjournment of the senate until Monday may not prevent the transmission of the Howaiian correspondence to congress tomorrow, although the probability is that it will not be sent in until both houses are in session again. Custom and precedent are against the tarnsmission of messages of similar import intended for both senate and house, when only one is in session. But custom and pretedent have not provided for cases where both branches of congress call for the same matter from the ececutive department by separate resolutions. It is hinted that president will sent in the Willis communication to the house to-morrow, because the house called for it independently of the senate.

Everything is ready at the state department for the transmission of the correspondence. It was expected this morning that copies of all matter received from Mr. Willis by the Corwin would go to both houses this afternoon, but the president did not give the word. The cabinet meeting began at 11 o'clock with all the members present and continued for three hours and ten minutes. At its close the cabinet officers refused to say whether the correspondence would go in this week. No inkling was given as to the reason for holding it back, but the suggestion was rapidly adopted that the president was waiting to hear of the sailing of the steamer Mariposa from San Francisco for Honolulu before transmitting it. The Mariposa was scheduled to sail yesterday, but was detained to await the arrival of the British mail for the colonies. It was also suggested that the advices which the over due City of Pekin was expected to bring from Honolulu were awaited before action was taken in the direction of sending the correspondence to congress.

SAD CASE OF SUICIDE.

Mrs. Amos Walker, whose husband works on Duncan's lumber job at Paddy Mountain, committed suicide on Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock, by shooting herself with a rifle. According to information received there she had by prolonged illness become demented and for the last week had to be watched constantly. For this purpose Mr. Walker had procured the services of a hired girl, so as to be able to go after his work. At the time stated the servant was engaged in carrying in wood from a near-by building, and while out of the house Mrs. Walker went upstairs, got her husband's rifle and holding it close to her body near the heart, discharged the weapon. The hired girl heard a dull thub in the house and suspecting something wrong hastened to the house, and found her mistress lying on the floor mortally wounded. She gave alarm, and a number of men, among them the unfortunate woman's husband, were on the scene in a few minutes. When they lifted her on the bed they saw that life was extinct, death having been almost instantaneous. Mrs. Walker was about 30 years of age, and when in good health was of a jovial disposition. Her bereaved husband is nearly prostrated with grief. The remains will be taken to York, her former home, for burial.

THE FARMER'S MUTUAL.

From the Centre Reporter we learn that the Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Centre county held its annual meeting at Centre Hall on Monday last. The report shows a largely increased business during the past year. The financial condition of the company, as heretofore, is sound. In a period of nearly five years only one tax has been laid. Although this Company has insured the several properties destroyed by fire at Madisonburg, last Friday, we are pleased to state that the company will be able to meet that loss without an assessment upon the members.

The following directors were chosen for the ensuing year: Frederick Kurtz, Centre Hall; Maj J. B. Fisher, Gregg; Samuel B Herring, Gregg; H. E. Duck, Penn; Jacob Bottorf, College; Col. W. Fred Reynolds, Bellefonte; Daniel Brumgart, Miles; Frank McFarlane, Harris; Samuel Gramley, Miles; J. C. Bailey, Ferguson; H. C. Campbell, Ferguson, and John H. Musser, Haines. The Board organized by electing the following officers: President, Frederick Kurtz; Vice President, Samuel B. Herring; Secretary, Daniel F. Luce; Treasurer, William Wolf.

CENTRAL RAILROAD COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

On Monday, Jan. 15, the passenger schedule of Dec. 18th will be resumed, and on and after that date movement of passenger trains will be strictly in accordance with time table.

Close connection will be made at Mill Hall with Beech Creek trains for points on and va the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg, Fall Brook and Philadephia & Reading R. R. Ticket agents are supplied with and will sell through tickets to all points on above mentioned railroad.

PREMATURE EXPLOSION.

Friday evening the residents of Bellefonte were startled by a most terrific explosion, which might have been taken for a blast, had it not been at such an unseem hour. Inquiyr, however-developed the fact that it was a premature explosion of a large amount of dynamite which the workmen at Morris' limestone quarries were endeavoring to thaw out at a fire. Fortunately no body was injured, but a small stone car that stood on a track near, was almostblown to atoms. It is a dangerous business, thawing out dynamite, and ought not be done only in a country where there are no dwellings or no people.

INSPECTING THE ROAD.

In another part of to-day's paper will be found the official notice of the Central Railroad company in effect that on and after Monday, January 15th, the passenger train on that road will make two round trips a day, and will be run on the old schedule as first published on December 18th. That is, the first train will leave Bellefonte at 7.10 a. m. and arrive in Mill Hall at 8.25 where connections will be made with the train west on the Beech Creek. Returning the train will leave Mill Hall at 8.45 and arrive in Bellefonte at 9.55. The afternoon train will leave here at 3.50, get to Mill Hall at 5.05 and returning will leave Mill Hall at 5.20 and arrived in Bellefonte at 6.30. The freight train will leave Bellefonte at 6.30 a. m. and return here about two o'clock in the afternoon. This will give connections with all trains over the Beech Creek and will give Bellefonte the advantage of most excellent railroad facilities.

It is now four weeks since the road was opened and, save the accidents of the first few days, the operating department has been running fairly smooth, with a gradual increase toward correctness until now, the road being fully ballasted and lined up; both turn-tables and all the sidings completed, the company feel safe in increasing the service as above stated. Supt. J. W. Gephart, Contractor J. I. Higbee and Chief Engineer J. E. Richter, with a few other officials, went over the road Saturday on a tour of inspection. It is safe to say they found the road in a good condition.

THAT SURPRISE PARTY.

On Friday we made brief mention of a social party at the home of Miss Anna Murray, on Allegheny street. To-day we are able to give fuller particulars. It appears that the party was a complete surprise to this young lady. Miss Murrary had gone to the opera house and on her return found her rooms brilliantly lighted up, a large party of young people present, and a supper fit for a princess spread upon the tables. Of course Miss Anna was equal to the emergency and, after her surprise had vanished played the part of hostess in a highly satisfactory manner.

The supper was eaten and then the young folks enjoyed a social dance until an early hour in the morning when all departed for their homes, having enjoyed a most delightful time. The following ladies and gentlemen were present:

TWO MEN CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Wilson and Samuel Walker, brothers, and Ezra Baer, their brother-in-law, while at work on Thursday afternoon at the Walker limestone quarry, about two miles from Listie station, on the Somerset and Cambria branch railroad, in Somerset county, met with an accident that caused the death of two of the men and the serious injury of the third. While the men were in the act of placing a prop under a large ledge of rock which hung out from the cliff the mass became dislodged and fell upon them. Messrs. Baer and Samuel Walker were terribly crushed and died before medical aid could be summoned. Wilson Walker had his right arm almost cut from his body, necessiating amputation at the shoulder, and he was otherwise badly injured. Samuel Walker was the owner of the qaarry, and leaves a wife and large family.

TRIPLETS BORN.

The assessor of the south precinct of Potter township under a recent law is compelled to make a record of all deaths and births occurring in his district. Last Friday an event occurred in the family of Mr. Frank Treaster, living near the Red mill, a short distance from Tusseyville, which will give him a triple amount of recording of births than is necessary in such instances, and that Mrs. Treaster presented her husband with triplets, two boys and a girl.

The three babes were all living, but the girl died some hours after birth. The mother and the two sons are doing well.

A SUPPOSED CORPSE REVIVES.

Lewisburg, Pa., January 10.—Mrs. William Stroahecker, wife of a prominent citizen of this place, and who has been suffering with the grip, was to-day overcome while sitting on a chair and to all appearances life became extinct. The undertaker was sent for, but when he arrived the body revived and the woman is now able to converse with friends.

BOILED TO DEATH.

Johnstown, Pa., Jan. 10.—A 4 year-old son of Frank McGuire of this city was boiled to death to-day by falling into a tub of scalding water. The skin fell off the child in great patches, and death followed speedily.

An additional letter carrier has been added to Lock Haven's force and the total is now five.

David Allman, of Walker township, Juniata county, died on the 29th ult, aged about 80 years.

On the night of the 4th inst., a fortunately unsuccessful attempt was made to burn the Presbyterian church at Locke's Mills, Mifflin county.

Recent deaths in Juniata county are. Mrs. Elizabeth Cook, of near Pleasant View, aged 49; Mrs. Margaret Diven, of Lock township, aged 80.

Johnstown lawyers now close their offices to business at 6 in the evening. In lowering their hours no mention is made of their having reduced their charges.

Two Lock Haven aldermen and a county justice, in Clinton county, were directed to pay the costs in cases ignored by the Clinton county grand jury last week.

James, the 4 year old son of Frank McGirr, of Moxham, fell into a tub of boiling water a few days ago and was so badly scalded that it died from its injuries.

Carpenters are now at work building the round house of the Nittany Valley railroad at Mill Hall. The turn table for this road at that place is now being used, and the road bed is to be put in first class condition.

The large livery and sale stables of Smith Brinker, at Mt. Pleasant, caught fire about 8 o'clock on January 10 and were badly damaged before the flames were gotten under control by the efforts of the fire company.

Twenty-two million feet of manufactured lumber makes a big pile, and yet that was the amount sawed for Charles Kreamer, the Lock Haven lumberman, last vear. Part was manufactured at Lock Haven and the balance at Williamsport.

On the evening of January 9, Captain Noah Bowman died at his home in Stroyestown, Somerset county, from the effects of a gunshot wound received during the civil war. He was a member of Company C, Fifty-fourth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers. He was 56 years old.

Clearfield Raftsman's Journal: Joseph Malloy, of Curwensville, and William Flynn, of Penn township, have both lost their reason from the effects of grip. Mr. Flynn will be taken to the Warren Insane asylum by Sheriff Cardon this week. We understand Mr. Malloy is getting better.

Recent deaths in Mifflin county: John Lyter, of Lewistown, aged 73; Joseph L. Roper, of Belleville, aged 80; Mary Jane Sykes, of Painterville, aged 53; Mrs. Cornelius, of Three Locks, aged 63; Miss Eliza B. Buchanan, of Oliver township, aged 34; Miss Anna L. Faux, of Lewistown, aged 15.

THE VALUE OF HARD WORK.

Hard work, mental or physical, rarely ever kills. If a mild amount of physical exercise is taken, and a judicious amount of food is furnished, the bowels kept open in the proper manner, the surface protected with proper clothing, and the individual cultivates a philosophical nature, and absolutely resolves to permit nothing to annoy or fret him, the chances are that he can do an almost unlimited amount of work, for an indefinite length of time, bearing in mind always that when weariness comes, he must rest, and not take stimulants, and work upon false capital. The tired, worn out slave should not be scourged to additional labor. Under such stimulus, the slave may do the task, but he soon becomes crippled and unfit for work. The secret of successful work lies in the direction of selecting good, nutritious, digestible food, taken in proper quantities; the adopting of regular methods of work; the rule of resting when pronounced fatigue presents itself, determining absolutely not to permit friction, worry, or fretting to enter into his life; and the cultivation of the Christian graces—charity, patience and philosophy.

COURTESY.

As people in a crowd find it difficult from their close contact to avoid hurting each other and being hurt, so in our close relations with one another, in business, in society, and at home, we also find it difficult to avoid the chafing of different dispositions and tempers and views and aims against each other producing more or less permanent discomfort, pain and sense of wrong. This difficulty courtesy can best help us to overcome. By its gentle and gracious presence it preserves from too close and too rough contact. It throws a protecting veil over each personality which cannot be easily rent asunder. Who can quarrel with or dispute with or contradict one who isinvariable gently and courteous in his behavior? The disposition to do so is immediately checked, and a feeling of respect takes its place. It rebukes undue familiarity, sets up a barrier against altercation, and soothes irritable or angry feelings.

MUST SUPPORT HIS WIFE.

Huntingdon, Pa., January 11.—John Moore, who left this town in May last, was recently arrested in McKeesport on a warrant charging him with desertion of his wife and five children, and yesterday morning his case was tried before the two associate judges. The testimony of his wife, that he had not contributed a single cent toward the support of her children or herself since his departure from home May 15 1893, was positive, and believing it true the court sentenced the defendant to pay the costs and $1.50 per week to his wife, payments to date from May 15 last, and remitted monthly, and enter into a recognizance in the sum of $5000 for the faithful discharge of the sentence. Moore was unable to secure a bondsman and was sent to jail.

A BOIL ON HIS NECK.

A judge in one of the southern states called on the governor. "Your excellency," said the visitor. "I have called on you for the purpose of exciting your executive sympathy,

"Well," the governor answered.

"You remember," said the judge, "that one Homic I. Buck, who was sentenced by me, is to be hanged to-morrow.

"Yes."

"Well, I have come to ask for a respite for a few days."

"Have you discovered new evidence bearing on his case?" the governor asked.

"No, your excellency."

"Does the man say that he has not had sufficient preparation?"

"Oh, no."

"Then why should the respite be granted?"

"Well, it is just this: He was all right and was perfectly willing to die until day before yesterday, when an extremely painful boil arose—I think that is about the proper way to express it—arose on the back of his neck. It is so painful and so sensitive to the touch that he can not stand the pressure of the rope. He fears that the agony would make him sick. He regrets it very much and requests me to have the execution postponed until he is better able to stand it."

"But," said the governor, "in the sight of the law the presence of a boil on the neck is not sufficient cause for postponement. Have you looked the matter up?"

"Yes your excellency, but can find no precedent. However this should make no difference in a day of surprising innovation."

"But, my dear judge, the law does not recognize surprising innovation. Law must be of smooth and equable temper, and not given to fits and starts."

"Ah, your excellency, but it is not the province of law to inflict pain, and I don't know of anything more painful than an irritated boil. To tell you the truth, I don't believe the fellow can stand it,"

"I reckon he'll have to," the governor replied.

But he simply can not. I tell you sir, that it will endanger his life—or I mean that he can't endure it."

"That may be, but I think that it would be advisable for him to try."

The judge went to the jail. The prisoner came to the bars, and anxiously asked for the governor's decision.

"He has decided against you," said the judge.

"Did you tell him how painful this thing is?"

"Yes, I explained, but it didn't make any difference."

"He is what I call a hard-hearted man," said the prisoner, "and if i had my way I wouldn't be hanged at all. When, this thing is nearly killing me, and I just know I can't stand that rope."

He did stand it, though, and when the trap fell, he uttered no exclamation of pain, and murmured no complaint.

NEW POSTAL REGULATIONS.

The postoffice authorities at Washington have sent out instructions in effect that hereafter persons mailing printed matter to foreign countries should write the address on the articles as well as on the wrapper. This action is taken to prevent the loss of articles of this description. Wrappers are frequently mutilated and in some cases torn entirely off by contact with other packages while in transit. This resulted in an accumulation of articles whose owners are not known.

—William Lyon, the popular butcher of Bishop street recently killed a three-year old steer that weighed over a thousand pounds when dressed. There never was sold in our markets nicer or better beef than this steer produced; in fact, "Billy" always did keep a first class meat market, and we are pleased to learn that he is going to move onto Allegheny street the 1st of April next.

Mr. P. B. Crider, of Bellefonte, is in the city to day on business. He has just recovered from a six weeks siege of grip and loooks remarkably well for a man who has been sick such a length of time. Mr. Crider has just passed his 72nd birthday. —Lock Haven Express.

HANCOCK NAMED FOR CONGRESS.

By the Democratic State Convention at Harrisburg Yesterday.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 10.—The state Democratic convention for the nomination of a candidate for congressman-at large was called to order shortly after 12 o'clock today by ex-Congressman Gillespie, of Mercer. The officers of the September convention retained their old places.

The committee on resolutions retired to the Commonwealth hotel to prepare a platform. During the wait, the delegates and spectators smoked and listened to the music of the brass band stationed in the gallery.

On the return of the committee, Chairman Herring, of Columbia county, mounted the platform and read to the convention the resolutions, which were received and adopted with loud cheers and applause.

Following the adoption of the platform, John Sullivan, of Pittsburg, offered a resolution that 400,000 copies be printed for distribution among the workmen of Pennsylvania. This gave Attorney General Hensel and James H Beck, of Philadelphia, an opportunity to make some strong speeches, endorsing the resolutions. B. R. Cotter, of McKean, presented the name of James Benton Hancock, of Franklin, for the nomination for congressman-at-large. The nomination was seconed by Samuel C Wagner, of Cumberland. Hancock was nominated by acclamation.

Mr. Hancock entered the convention and was enthusiastically received. He made a strong speech endorsing the platform and accepting the nomination. The convention adjourned at 2.30.

SENATORS ON THEIR METTLE.

TRENTON, Jan. 10.—When the Democratic Senate adjourned this morning instructions were given to the Sergeant-at Arms to bar the door and keep every one out. When the Republican Senators came to the state house and found the door closed they were very angry, and they procured the services of a locksmith to open the door. The locksmith worked too slowly, however, to suit the impatience of the crowd that had followed the Senators, and a plank was procured and the door was broken in and the Republicans took poeession of the chamber. When quiet was restored the session of the Republican Senate began. The race track repealer bill was introduced and the Senate took a recess for ten minutes.

After the recess the Senate passed the racing repealer by a unanimous vote, and adopted the House resolution providing for a joint meeting on the 23d of January.

A resolution was then offered by Senator Ketcham, of Essex, authorizing the appointment of "twenty-five additional Sergeant-at-Arms to take possesion and hold the Senate chamber for the use of the Senate of New Jersey." This resolution was temporarily laid over, and the Senate held a private conference to decide further on their course of action.

HOLIDAY CHEER.

The holiday season is close upon us, and every household in the land is prearing for the plum pudding, and the general and feasting and rejoicing. A little good brandy for the mince pie, rum for the pudding, for a little stimulant to keep the spirits up and the cold out, is absolutely necessary for an old time Christmas cheer. One of the most prominent liquor dealers in the country, Mr. Max Klein of Allegheny, Pa., whom we can cheerfully recommend, and who has the reputation for handling only absolutely pure liquors, will sell you the following brands of six years old pure Penn'a Ryes, at $1.00 per full quart or six for $5.00: Bear Creek, Gibson, Guckenheimer, Finch, and Overholt. The famous Silver Age, the finest whiskey in the country at $1.50 and Duquesne, a whiskey distilled from Rye and Malt, at $1.25 per quart, Guckenheimer 4 years old, at 75c per quart, and the Anchor Rye at 50c. You can have your choice of all kinds of California Wines, Gins, Rum and Brandy, all pure, and old, at from 50 cents per quart up.

MOVEMENTS OF OUR SHIPS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Mail advices to the Navy Department show that the United States Ship Yantic was at Montevideo November 20 with no intention of leaving there.

A cable message received at the Navy Department announces the arrival of the cruiser Baltimore at Yokohama, headquarters of the Asiatic squadron, to-day. Acting Rear-Admiral Skerrett, commanding the station, awaited her arrival there on the flagship Lancaster, and transferred his flag to the Baltimore. The Lancaster is under orders to proceed home. Her days of active service are nearly over and she will probably be utilized as a training ship.

SHOWED HIMSELF A LEADER.

The inhabitants of a certain Florida town are mostly engaged in wrecking, and manage to support themselves very comfortably from the proceeds. Sunday services at the frame church are always well attended.

One Sunday recently the church was crowded with worshipers. The minister was at thirdly when a man rushed to the door and yelled "wreck!" There was immediately a tremendous scramble. The minister called "Halt!" at the top of his lungs, and as the congregation paused, was seen to glide down from the pulpit, and saying, "Let's all have a fair start," he rushed down the aisle and was the first one out.—[Harper's Bazar.

FUNERAL OF FRANK MOKLE.

The remains of Mr. Frank B. Mokle, who met such an untimely death in Altoona Thursday, passed through Bellefonte Saturday on their way to Lemont, where they were taken for burial. They were under an escort of twelve of Mr. Mokle's shopmates. A beautiful cross of flowers was borne on the coffin. It was made up of white lillies, white and yellow roses, intertwined with green, and bearing the inscription, woven in forget-me-nots, "Shopmate." Mr. Mokle's father and brother, Mr. William Mokle and son, of Lemont, who had gone to Altoona, were with the funeral party, as were also Mrs. Mokle's folks, Mr. Ishler and his family. The funeral took place from the residence of Mr. William Mokle, in Lemont, on Sunday morning, at ten o'clock.

—Mrs. Burnside, of West Curtin street, recently secured the service of an Irish girl but 6 months in this country. Upon her arrival she was shown her room and was introduced to the colored man and told if she wanted any help to apply to him. Soon after Bridget appeared with her clothing, and when asked by Mrs. Burnside what the matter, she replied that she was going to leave, and that Mrs. Burnside could not expect her to stay after introducing her to a "nagur" and herself a democrat, and away she went.

WANTS $20,000 DAMAGES.

Isaac Raven, of York state, whose vocation is that of a lumber inspector, has sued the Millheim and Coburn turnpike company for $20,000 damages for a crushed leg, from an accident on that pike over a year ago. The case is down for trial at Bellefonte, for week of January 29.

The particulars in the case, as related to us, are as follows: While Mr. Raven and a friend were driving in a buggy from Coburn to Millheim, they met a lumber team on the road opposite Reed Alexanders, and in their endeavor to turn out, the buggy was upset by striking a large stone sticking up in the road, and Mr. Raven was thrown under the passing lumber wagon, the wheels of which crushed one of his legs below the knee. He has remained at Woodward since under surgical care. Our informant says the pike company has offered Mr. Raven $10,000; as this pike is only two and a half miles in length, such damages would be a serious lesson for not having it in safe condition.—Reporter.

GRATEFUL COMFORTING.
EPPS'S COCOA.
BREAKFAST—SUPPER.
"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. CHAIRMAN REEDER'S CALL.

To the Republicans of Centre County.

Owing to changes in the Ballot Law, it will be necessary for the Republican party to make its nominations early for the various Borough and Township offices. The tickets must be printed by the County Commissioners. Under the law, all nominations must be made by regular, organized caucuses and must be certified to the Commissioners at least eighteen days before the day of election. I have prepared and will send out to the various committeemen of the County the necessary blanks with full instructions.

The Republicans are requested to meet in caucuses and make their nominations not later than January 27th, 1894.

In Boroughs the office of Assistant Burgess is abolished, and the chief Burgess is elected for three years.

In both Boroughs and Townships, Tax collectors are to be elected on February 20 1894, for the term of three years.

In Boroughs composed of more than one ward, and in townships composed of more than one precinct, it will be necessary for the ward and precinct caucuses to nominate the ward or precinct ticket and then certify it on the blank furnished. Then conferees are appointed for each ward or precinct and these conferees will meet in convention and nominate the Borough or Township ticket, and this ticket must then be certified on a separate blank furnished for that purpose, by the officers of the convention.

WILBUR F. REEDER,
Chairman of Republican Co., Com.

COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The following named gentlemen compose the Republican Executive Committee of Centre County for the year 1892.

Wilbur F. Reeder, Chairman, Bellefonte
W. L. Malin, Secretary.
H. C. Quigley, Ass't Secretary.

CONGRESSMAN STONE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Congressman C. W. Stone, of Warren, Pa., was to-night shown the dispatch from Bradford Pa., saying that Mr. Stone, who had been a probable candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination of Pennsylvania, had decided to again be a candidate for re-election to Congress, Mr. Stone declined to state what his intentions were. He has been in consultation with friends in Pennsylvania bearing on the gubernatorial nomination, and is willing to go into the fight to secure it, but he has left the matter to them to decide. He has received answers from some, but they are yet a number to hear from. The matter will be decided very soon, as it is approaching the time to settle the question as to who will be the candidate for Congress from the Twenty seventh District which Mr. Stone now represents.

TWO MORE BODIES RECOVERED.

LAUREL HILL, L. I., January 14.—The bodies of John Cook and August Blaum, who went down in the collapse of the temporary draw bridge across the Newtown creek at Penny Bridge, Friday evening of last week, were recovered this afternoon, and removed to Conway's morgue in Long Island city. This makes four bodies in all so far recovered. Five men are still unaccounted for and are supposed to be at the bottom of the creek. They are Bernard Boyle, John Kerwin, Hugh Markey, William Martin, C. B. McGruder. The missing are all residents of Brooklyn. It is surmised that there are others missing and only a careful search of the bottom of the creek will settle the question.

THINGS TERSELY TOLD.

The truth will not down, yet we must all swallow it.

An apology is a very poor present to offer to a friend.

It is a noble and great thing to cover the blemishes and excuse the failings of a friend; to draw a curtain before his stians and to display his perfection; to bury his weakness in silence, and to proclaim his virtues from the house top.

An exchange says: A good way to get rid of English sparrows is to soak wheat in whiskey and scatter it near the sparrows. They eat the wheat, get drunk and can be picked up. Where there are many sparrows bushels of them can be caught in that way.

Some people bring on trouble, or cross bridges before they come to them, so to speak, and as this winter has been so far temed a very mild and open one, many are already worrying themselves over the great amount of sickness it is going to produce. Winter is not yet over, and it may be that the present month, with February and March, will yet show the people what it can do to make it cold enough for their tastes.

OVERCOME BY WEAKNESS.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., January 14.—Mrs. Beecher, wife of the late Henry Ward Beecher, of Brooklyn, while attending services at the Plymouth church on Orange street, near Henry, this morning was seized with a fit of weakness and had to be carried into the lecture room where she was unconscious for about five minutes. Dr. Alton G. Warner, who was present, attended Mrs. Beecher, and after giving restoratives to her, managed to bring her back to consciousness. A cab was called and Mrs. Beecher was removed to her home, where Dr. Searle, the family physician, was called to attend her. Dr. Searle, in speaking about Mrs. Beecher's condition to night, said that it was not serious and that Mrs. Beecher would be able to be around in a day or two.

HERE LIES!

Epitaphy is a demoralizing kind of taffy. It appears on the tombstone, and eulogizes the dead almost to the very stars. The usual method of beginning is: "Here lies." Very suggestive, for the lies are frequently quite astonishing—almost enough so to both amuse and amaze the dead of whom they are written. A truthful epitaph, in many instances, would be: "Here lies one who omitted to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery." If sick and suffering, and dreading premature death, test the potent remedy. It cures all chronic, liver, blood, and lung diseases, as billiousness, skin and scalp diseases, scrofulous sores and swellings, salt rheum, tetter, erysipelas, and even scrofula of the lungs (or consumption), if taken in time.

—The three year old child of Judge C A Faulkner, of Philipsburg, recently had a needle extracted from under the skin of its left thigh by Dr. Dunwiddie. The needle was working down the child's limb and was just coming through the skin. It has suffered very much of late, and its parents did not know what ailed it, as good health seemed evident. How the needle got there is not known.

The greatest cure for pains of all kinds, whether proceeding from cuts and burns, or from other ailments such as neuralgia and rheumatism is unquestionably Salvation Oil. This popular and effective remedy has continually gained in the confidence of the people until it has become a household desideratum. No dwelling is completely equipped without it.

Miss Patsy Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lane, has returned to school at Glen Cove, Md. She departed on Tuesday afternoon and was accompanied by her mother who went along to see her again safely esconced in the ladies school at that place.

Mrs. Theresa Hartson

"For fourteen years I have suffered with kidney troubles; my back so lame that sometimes I Could Not Raise Myself up out of my chair, nor turn myself in bed. I could not sleep, and suffered great distress with my food. I have taken four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures. Hood's Sarsaparilla. I feel like a new person, and my terrible sufferings have all gone. Life is comfort compared to the misery it used to be." MRS. THERESA HARTSON, Albion, Pa.

A Beautiful Dawning.

Light Sprung From The Darkness.

A GRAND AWAKENING WHICH SHALL LAST FOREVER.

A Brighter Outlook Than the World Has Ever Before Known.

Changes are constantly taking place which tend to make the world happier and to cause a feeling of joy and contentment to pervade our lives. One of the greatest blessing which has fallen to mankind and which is needed the dawning of a new era of life, has just taken place in the well-known family of Mrs. Albert Blanchard, residing at 358 Webster Ave., Chicago, Ill. She writes the following interesting letter:

"My health has been very poor for several years. I would have sinking spells and was so weak that I could not hold my hand up to my head. I would have to lie down on the sofa and was so very nervous that I could not sleep nights.

"My stomach troubled me all the time and my food distressed me so that I was afraid to eat. I had chills most of the time and sometimes chills and fever with trembling and shaking. I was also troubled with catarrh.

"I was so dizzy at times that I nearly fell; I would grab at the chair, and dark spots appeared before my eyes. I could not begin to tell how I suffered. I was so sick I did not enjoy life and was told that I would not live long.

"I took many remedies and employed several physicians but received no permanent benefit. I was induced to take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and after using six bottles I found it had done wonders for me. I now feel real strong and well and can walk a couple of miles.

"My stomach does not trouble me and I am not chilly. My catarrh has entirely disappeared, I am so well that I am assisting my husband in the office and help mother when I go home. I hope any one that is not well will try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.

"My little daughter, Helena, has also been using this remedy with great benefit. She was very delicate and nervous. After taking this wonderful medicine for a short time she gained three pounds and is not near so nervous as she was. I do not feel afraid to recommed Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for I know what it has done for me and my little girl and I would advise any one who is suffering to take it."

MISS HELENA BLANCHARD.

What a beautiful awakening, indeed, is this great discovery from the darkness of disease and the failure to conquer it. What a blessing to the humanity How grateful must Mrs. Blanchard feel for the cure of herself and child, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will do for you all that it has done for her. If you are suffering from any form of nervous or blood disease, indigestion, weak stomach, kidney or liver complaints, take this wonderful medicine and it will cure you. Dr. Greene, the noted specialist in the cure of all chronic and nervous diseases, can be consulted at his office, 35 West 14th street, New York, free, personally or by letter.

NO MILEAGE ALLOWED.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 16.—The members of the Joint Legislative Commission which met to-day to complete the vote for State Treasurer, were informed by the Auditor General that they would be paid their actual traveling expenses only, and not mileage. Heretofore the sum of $1,000 usually appropriated for the commission has been used in paying clerks, and the balance divided among the members. Auditor General Gregg has referred the matter to the Attorney General for an opinion.

WILL SECURE OVER $200.000.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Jan. 16.—Hon Robt. Sherrard received word from Columbus to day that he had won his case against the Pittsburgh, Columbus, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railroad Company in the supreme court. He refused to go into the consolidation with his Panhandle stock and applied to the court to have the value of his stock determined and paid him by the railroad company. The case was first tried before arbitrators, who placed the value of the stock held by him at $60 a share. The railroad company appealed to the court of common pleas and the case was tried by a jury. The value of the stock was fixed at $68 50. The railroad company took the case to the circuit court, which affirmed the judgment of common pleas, Judge Laubie dissenting. The company then took it to the supreme court, which affirmed the judgment of the common pleas and circuit court.

The amount as found by the arbitrators was $177,420, that found by the jury was $192,205, and Mr. Sherrard will receive a check for $211,000, being the aggregate of principal and interest.

UNEMPLOYED MUST GO.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Mayor Hopkins devoted several hours to-day to a conference with Corporation Counsel Rubens, Chief of Police Brennan and T. W. Harvey, of the Central Relief Committee, for the purpose of devising means for protecting the city from the depredations of the unemployed that have gathered in the city and refuse absolutely to work in return for the assistance they receive from public charity.

There are about 2,000 men, and the authorities are determined that they must be driven out of Chicago. The conference was adjourned until to-morrow, no definite agreement being reached. It was decided, however, to adopt measures whereby they must work or leave town. They will be driven out under the vagrant act, which, Mr. Rubens says, is broad enough for the purpose.

SHOWS ASTONISHING NERVE.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., January 16.—Henry Heist will be hanged here to-morrow morning for the murder of Emanuel Monn. The execution is set for 11 o'clock, but it may be afternoon before the drop falls, since Heist says he will talk for an hour at least on the scaffold and there tell who killed Monn and also all about the murder.

The condemned man is displaying most astonishing nerve. His sleep is unbroken at night. To-day he asked Sheriff McIlhenny as a special favor to let him see the gallows. His request was granted and the gruesome object, upon which to-morrow his life will go out, never moved him. He was measured for a black suit of clothes to-day.

DYNAMITE BOMB AT SALEM, O.

SALEM, O., Jan. 16.—When John Eavns one of the leading coal men of this section came to his office in this city this morning he found a bomb lying against the office door. A piece of lead pipe, fully two inches in diameter and ten inches long, with a charred fuse running through a screw plug, was loaded with dynamite and blasting powder.

Evans with other operators has been having trouble with the miners over the question of wages, and the only explanation of the bomb business is that some of the miners sought by wrecking his building to intimidate him.

STABBED HIS WIFE.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Jan. 16.—A bloody stabbing affray occurred at a Slav boarding house at the Long Run mines last night. Andy Bollack, the proprietor, is jealous of his wife and of the attention she receives from other boarders, and last night when drunk objected to another Hungarian caressing her, and inquired twice, "You like that man best or me?"

The frightened woman did not reply and Bollack furiously jumped on her and stabbed her twice seriously in the breast. He was pulled off before he could kill her outright and was brought here to jail today.

VAILLANT'S DAUGHTER.

PARIS, Jan. 16.—The daughter of the condemned Anarchist, Auguste Vaillant, has disappeared. It is supposed that she has been kidnapped by some would be guardian. There has been considerable discussion about who should have the care of Vaillant's child after he has been put to death. The Duchess D'Uzes offered to educate her, but Vaillant expressed a preference that her bringing up be entrussed to a friend of his, a cabinet-maker named Haytz.

THE NATIONAL GUARD.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., January 16—Adjutant General Greenland and Major General Snowden, commanders of the Pennsylvania National Guard, were here to-day inspecting the ground which will be occupied by the division at its encampment next summer. The location will be the same as occupied in 1884—the high ground west of the Emmittsburg road, over which Pickett's division charged in their assault in Hancock's front.

A good character, good habits and iron industry are impregnable to the assaults of all the ill-luck that fools ever dreamed of.

We always have known everything when it serves no purpose, and when the seal of the irreparable has been set upon events.

A MEADVILLE SENSATION.

Alleged Conduct of Two Young Ladies Growing Out of the Savings Bank Failure.

MEADVILLE, Jan. 15.—Two young ladies called to-day at the residence of Cyrus Kitchen, President of the recently suspended Meadville Savings Bank, and according to Mrs. Kitchen's story, demanded $800 on deposit in the bank by their father. One of the girls is Miss Lucy Jobe, a teacher, and her sister Minnie, a dealer in hair goods. They were both arrested this evening, but Mrs. Kitchen was too prostrated, as alleged, to appear against them, and the hearing was postponed. The girls deny that they used a revolver or made any threats, but say they were there on business. Miss Minnie having been asked to call so that the Kitchens might make some purchases.

The affair has created a sensation, and the hearing may develop some things not on the bills.

The suspended bank has made no statement as yet. Two petitions for a receiver are filed, but none have been appointed. Late this afternoon ex-Sheriff Wilcox brought suit against the bank for the amount of his deposit. Other similar actions will follow.

President Kitchen, when pressed for a specific statement, says he is deferring his statement until a receiver is decided upon or abandoned. There has been no trouble at any of the other banks.

AN EARLY MORNING FIRE.

The Conrad Building Again in Ruins. The Loss Hard to Estimate.

It has been a long time since the quiet slumbers of the residents of Bellefonte have been rudely disturbed by the thunderous tones of the monster fire alarm and the people had almost begun to think that fires in Bellefonte were to be a thing of past ages. But it seems to have been over confidence.

It was just about 4 o'clock Monday morning when the old fog horn started up and it seemed as if it would never stop. The signal sounded was for the South ward and thither everybody ran, even before any fire could be discovered. But it was not long in showing itself. By the time the first persons got on Allegheny street smoke was seen issuing from all parts of the old Conrad block, on South Allegheny, and fire could be seen in the rear of the building. It was but a few minutes until the flames burst through the roof and but a few minutes more until the entire roof was a seething mass of fire.

The building, which was of stone and three stories high, was occupied below by W. C. Heinle, Esq., and Charles Smith, a law and insurance office; next south was a hallway, then Beezer's butcher shop, and last the pool rooms and cigar store of George B. Crawford. Under Heinle & Smith's office was the barber shop of Mesh Graham. The second story was occupied by the Centre Democrat printing office and by Dr. Mullen. The third story was vacant.

From the best of authorities it appears that the fire was first seen in the rear office of Beezer's butcher shop and, as no one had access thereto, it is conclusive that the origin was one of those mysterious occurrences that can never be accounted for. Certain it is, that it was not the work of an incendiary, but purely accidental, in some way or another.

The fire companies were soon on the spot and did very efficient service. The Undines had the misfortune to have a run-off and an upset, badly breaking their engine and rendering it unfit for use, so that they were compelled to use the hose alone. But they did good work, all the same. This, together with the work of the Logan steamer, soon succeeded in checking the flames and confining the fire entirely to the one building. In this building only the roof and the third story was burned off and some little in the rear of the building where the fire made its way up through. The fire did not even get down to the Centre Democrat office, but the plant is badly damaged by the fall of the ceiling and by the water.

On the lower floor, Heinle & Smith succeeded in getting out all of their posessions in good order. Beezer got out most of his meat, etc. Charles Kurtz got out all his beer, but Crawford, owing to the nature of his stock took out nothing. He is greatly damaged by water. It is hard at this writing to place anything like a correct estimate on the total loss, but it will aggregate between twenty and thirty thousand dollars. The insurance, which was in Charles Smith's agency, is as follows: On the building $7,500; George B. Crawford, $1,200; Charles R. Kurtz, $1,000; on rents, $1,000; Beezer brothers, $365; Mesh Graham, $200, a total of $11,265. The building is not so badly damaged but that it can be repaired, but all the occupants will have to find another location for a few months or more.

The Centre Democrat force is already hard at work moving their type to one of the vacant rooms in the Garman block, where the paper will be set up and the same will be printed at one of the other offices. As soon as possible another location will be selected and Mr. Kurtz will move his entire plant. So far as can be learned none of the others, who were driven out, have secured locations.

FRANK MOKLE'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Mr. B Frank Mokle occurred on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of his father, Mr. William Mokle, in Lemont. Religious services were to have been held in the Evangelical church but that not being large enough to to accommodate half the people in attendance the services were held in the Presbyterian church and it was crowded to its utmost capacity. The funeral sermon was preached by the Evangelical minister of Centre Hall, Rev C H Goodling, who delivered a most touching and appropriate discourse. Interment was made in the cemetery at Houserville.

Beautiful was the tribute paid to the memory of the departed fellow workman by his shopmates, and as they stood beside his bier the remembrance of the many little acts of kindness performed by jolly, good natured Frank Mokle crowded hard and fast upon their minds. Some of them had stood beside him when he met his terrible fate and others had helped to carry the mutilated remains to a place of safety. So well had Spicer & Co., untertakers in charge, performed their work that the body was in a perfect state of preservation and the features were as calm and peaceful as though in life, not a trace of the violent death he had met being visible. To the bereaved wife sympathies are extended with the hope that the babe that has been left fatherless may follow through life the foot steps of its Christian father and that it may be a stay and comfort to the bereaved mother.

SHE WAS WILLING TO GIVE UP ALL.

When Queen Elizabeth of England, found death approaching her, she cried despairingly, "All my possessions for a moment of time!" There are wealthy ladies to-day, the world over, who would gladly exchange their riches for sound health. Many are made well and happy by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a never failing cure for diseases so common to women. As a corrective for all functional weaknesses it is of universal repute among the sex, and thousands of pale, worn-out, enfeebled victims have been changed into vigorous women and girls by its use. Guaranteed to give satisfaction, or price refunded. Druggists have it.

A LADIES' AUXILIARY.

Last Friday in accordence with a call by Secretary Cota, of the young Men's Christian Association, a large number of ladies met in the Y. M. C. A. rooms and organized a Ladies' Auxiliary electing the following officers, which were selected as much as possible from the various church organizations of the town:

President, Mrs. J A Woodcock; Treasurer, Mrs. C M Bower; Secretary, Miss Emma Aikens. The vice presidents are: Mrs. E S Dorworth, Christian church; Mrs. J W Gephart, Presbyterian; Mrs. Clement Dale Lutheran; Mrs. H H Schreyer, Methodist; Mrs. W B Larimer, United Brethren; Mrs. Zehner, Evangelical; Miss Mary Valentine, Friends; Miss Leona Maitland, Episcopal.

It is the work of these ladies to create a greater interest in this good work and to make everything as attractive and entertaining as possible. They will likely somewhat assist in keeping up the finances by the holding of suppers, festivals, etc. From the above organization it can be seen that ladies who will take an interest in the work have been chosen and there is not the least doubt but that they will help along the great work of christianizing the young men of Bellefonte and vicinity amazingly. We certainly wish them great success.

"I will use it and no other." Mrs. Nellie Bromer, Passaic, N. J. uses this empatic language. "I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in my house three years and would not be without it cured my cough which I had for months. I will always use it and no other."

AN OLD RESIDENT GONE.

The Tyrone Herald says: Benjamin Boger, the oldest resident of Bald Eagle valley, died at 8.30 o'clock Friday evening, of a complication of diseases superinduced by old age. He was residing with his daughter, Mrs. William Cassady, at Hickory Bottom, two miles from Bald Eagle. Mr. Boger had reached the advanced age of 93 years. A native of Maryland, he had come to Bald Eagle valley about seventy-five years ago, residing there ever since, a respected and esteemed citizen, kind husband and indulgent father.

Surviving the deceased are the following children: Mrs. William Cassady, Mrs. Sanford Stonebraker, Mrs. Henry Nearhoof and Benjamin Boger, of Bald Eagle valley; Jacob Boger, of Tyrone and Andrew Roger, of Nebraska. His wife preceded him to the grave twelve years ago.

The funeral occurred Sunday morning at 10 o'clock from the house. Rev. G. P. Sarvis, of Port Matilda, conducted the services. Interment was made in the Olivia cemetery.

—Prof. H. P. Arnsby, of the Experimental station, State College; Prof. Walters, of the agricultural department, and Mr. W C Patterson, of the experimental farm, are all booked to deliver addresses before a farmer's institute to be held at Warriorsmark, Huntingdon county, January 30th and 31st. The Huntingdon county farmers can be assured of hearing practical and beneficial talks from all the above gentlemen.

Hill's Chloride of Gold Tablets are not experimental. They have been on the market for years and are guaranteed to cure the Tobacco, Morphine or Drink habit. Your druggist sells them.

LOCK HAVEN'S BLAZE.

A Six Thousand Dollar Fire in Our Sister Town.

A special from Lock Haven says: At about 8 o'clock Sunday evening fire broke out in the building occupied by F. E. Finney, as a residence and confectionery store, on Main street, just east of Vesper, and before the blaze could be extinguished two buildings adjacent were destroyed. The building in which the fire originated is a two story frame structure, Mr. Finney using the back and upper portion as a residence.

The flames quickly communicated to another two story building on the east, occupied by W. H. Parsons as a grocery store, while his residence was in the second story. On the west of the Finney building was a one and one-half story structure occupied by J. C. White as a meat market. This too was burned.

On the west of the burned buildings is a four story brick occupied by Louis Haberstroh as a shoe store and a residence, while to the east is the new St. Charles Hotel, which but recently has been remodeled. Neither of these buildings were damaged, the fire having been confined to the frame structures.

The loss on the three burned buildings and contents is estimated to be about $6,000 There is considerable of a difference between the insurance men and the owners regarding the insurance. The former claim that the loss is fully covered, while the latter say it is not.

The buildings were completely gutted and cannot be repaired. Fine brick structures will likely take their place. The old buildings were relics of over thirty years ago.

This fire gave the new water works an opportunity to be thoroughly tested and the result was entirely satisfactory to all concerned. This city owns two steam fire engines, but although ready to go into service, neither did so. The plug streams were depended upon and the heavy pressure kept the firemen busy to steady the nozzle.

A ROMANCE OF THE OIL FIELDS.

"One of the most productive oil wells in the well-known Titusville district was sold as a salted one," said B. E Richmond, of Meadville, Pa., to the corridor man at the Southern. "It was in the early days of the oil excitement, and capitalists were eagerly seeking lands where surface indications gave prospects of a find. Three brothers owned a small, sterile farm worth about $500, and they thought they saw a chance to sell out at a big price. They had no indications, but they had enough money to buy a few barrels of oil, and by judicious use of it they made the indications all right. Then they told about it as a great secret, they did not want to sell; what they wanted was to get money to sink a well. The bait took, and after a good deal of haggling a party of prospectors bought the farm for $10,000 in cash and 10 per cent. of the oil the firm produced during the first two years, they binding themselves to sink two wells at once. When the brothers received the money they arranged that their 10 per cent. should be placed in the banks to their credit, and fearing exposure from their frauds they went West, and were never heard from. The wells were sunk, and both were gushers, the 10 per cent. was placed in bank, according to agreement, until the sum reached $100,000. Years passed by, and nothing was heard of the brothers, they fearing to write, as they thought they might be subject to criminal prosecution for swindling. Finally an uncle learning the true state of affairs, concluded to look them up. If they were dead he would get the money, being the nearest living relative. After two years' search he located one of them in a Colorado poor house, the other was dead. The pauper was brought home, and lived in wealth for a year, when he died, and the money is now being enjoyed by his relatives."

"TWO SOULS WITH BUT A SINGLE THOUGHT."

As they sat side by side, they sighed. "Oh, my idol!" he said, and then idled. "Dear Luke," said she, as she looked, "I will wed thee if thou wilt," and he wilted. The honeymoon passed in an excess of joy. Excess in eating rich food brings indigestion, sick headache, and frequent attacks of dizziness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will cure all these. They are tiny, sugar-coated, and easy to swallow. No other preparation compares with them as a Liver Pill. They are guaranteed, and one is a dose.

LILLIAN RUSSELL AND THE PRIZE BABY.

"So it seems," says Holland in the Philadelphia Press, "that Lillian Russell, who might have married any one of half a dozen rich and empty-headed-dudes, is going to marry one whose first success in life was as Barnum's prize baby many years ago. When the great showman established his baby show there were some beautiful children exhibited, but the big, black-eyed, creamy-skinned, black and curly-haired infant who blinked upon his admirers as he sucked his thumb and who took the prize was little Johnnie Chatterton, who now, as Signor Perugini, has caused the fair Lillian to throw her resolutions never to marry to the winds. Johnnie Chatterton was on the stage when Helen Leonard was in bib and tucker, giving no great promise of the beautiful thing she was to become in her school days upon the prairies of Iowa. Chatterton's sad and dreamy eyes caused maidens to sigh as long ago as when Caroline Richings was first showing Americans what English opera was. Then he went to Europe, studied hard, and gave promise of winning very great success in grand opera as Signor Perugini until he was afflicted with deafness, which for a time impaired his artistic work so that he quitted the stage. There are many matrons now who used to think this American signor was the handsomest man who ever appeared upon the operatic stage and yet in his maturity he seems a handsomer man than he was in the days of his adolescence."

FOR THE MULTITUDE.

Many great blessings of the world can only be had by the few, but here is one for the benefit of all, and absolutely free of charge. Nothing is of more importance to us than our health. It has, until recently been impossible for the poor, or those living far from large cities, to obtain the best medical advice except at great expense. But now come forward one of our greatest and most successful specialists in curing nervous and chronic diseases and offers to every one, far and near, the privilege of consulting him by letter, without charge. This is none other than the well-known Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th Street, New York, the discoverer of that wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.

You who have sought in vain to learn what you are suffering from, or to obtain help, write him a description of your complaint, and he will return you a letter stating exactly what your disease is, and thoroughly describing each symptom, so that you can clearly understand just what ails you. And all this is entirely free of expense to you. The doctor gives most careful and explicit attention to all letters, and is having wonderful success in treating disease through his system of letter correspondence, using as he does, nothing but harmless vegetable remedies in his practice. Write the doctor at once all about your complaint. It is the surest way to regain your health.

GOT THE LICENSE TOO LATE.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 16.—In the list of marriage licenses published last Sunday was that of Frank Herberding and Miss Lizzie Shefer. The same paper contained the death notice of Mrs. Lizzie Herberding. The death was a sudden one and the coroner investigated, but found everything all right. But an insurance company in which she was insured refused to pay the insurance, and probing around found the couple were not married. Saturday morning Miss Shefer became very ill. Herberding, with whom she had lived as his wife, her parents supposing them married, staated to the courthouse for a license. When he returned she was dead. Now the coroner will look farther into the case. All were considered very respectable people.

—The trains on the Central railroad, running on the new schedule to-day, made good time and came through all O. K. The entire line is now in a good condition and perfectly safe for travel. The trains now make close connection with all trains on the Beech Creek. Round trip tickets can be purchased to all points in Eastern Pennsylvania and New York. To Philadelphia the rate is $9.37 and to New York at a proportionately low rate. Tickets good for thirty and sixteen days.

SEWING MACHINES REPAIRED.

Have you got a sewing machine that is broken, out of order, or even needs cleaning? If so, you should send for Hill. Hill, you know, is J. H. Hill, the agent of the Singer Manufacturing company, who lives on Thomas street. For all kinds of machine repair work Mr. Hill has no superior. He can not only repair your old machine, making it run like new, but he can sell you a new one so quick you will hardly realize it until it is paid for and everybody happy.

—On and after this morning, (Monday, January 15th) the Pennsylvania railroad company will sell round trip tickets, good for thirty days, from Bellefonte to Philadelphia and return, via Lewisburg or Lock Haven, for $9.37. Also, round trip ticket to New York over same routes, good for sixteen days, for $13.37. This is quite a reduction in price, will be a great convience to Bellefonters, and shows the public spiritedness of the Pennsylvania company.

—The Logan Steam Fire Enigne company desire to return sincere thanks to Col. W. Fred Reynolds for a donation of a handsome check, as a mark of appreciation for the way the boys guarded the Reynold's building this morning, during the fire in the Conrad house. Mr. Reynolds is a man who appreciates a favor in the right way.

—The Tyrone Herald says: While in Bellefonte Rev. Charles Garner received a donation of $20 for the A M E church of this place. This subscription was given for a worthy cause and should stir up our people in aid of the church building project of the worthy and energetic A. M. E. congregation.

—Hubert, the 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. F. Gray, of Fillmore, died on Thursday evening of that dread disease, diphtheria, and was buried on Friday morning at Halfmoon. The boy had not been sick very long. We sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Gray in their affliction.

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

LEHIGH VALLEY EMPLOYES.

They will be Taken Back on the Road as Soon as Places are Found For Them.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., January 11.—John H Rice, chairman of the general grievance committee of the Lehigh employes who was in conference with Superintendent Wilbur, at Bethlehem, arrived home this afternoon and a United Press reporter called to see him to-night. When questioned about the conference he seemed to ponder whether he should make known its purpose or results, but finally talked rather freely. The conference was an important one and will prove a long stride in the direction of restoring the old equilibrium between the Lehigh Valley and its employes. There have been complaints, more or less, from points all over the system by the old men that they were not receiving fair treatment from the company and this condition of things gave the whole affair such an unsettled air that further outbreak or trouble would not have been surprising to the public. The conference of Mr. Rice with Superintendent Wilbur was directly brought about by complaints from the old employes at Easton, a committee of whom were present at the conference. The restoration of the men to their old places on the road was taking place far too slowly to satisfy them, and a matter that caused greater disturbance and complaint from them was a rumored reduction in the pay of the old men. Some who had been taken back were again discharged. At the conference Mr. Rice learned that the rumor as to the reduction of the pay was not without foundation. It was the purpose of the company to pay the old engineers only $2.75 per day though the new ones received previous to the strike, namely, $3.25 per day. A similar discrimination was to be made in the pay of the firemen. At the conference Mr. Rice succeeded in getting Superintendent Wilbur to acquiesce in the opinion that such discrimination was unfair and he thought the men would be paid when the pay car arrived in Wilkesbarre on Saturday at the rate of $2.75 per day for engineers and $1.90 for firemen. A bulletin will be posted to-morrow informing them that they will henceforth be paid at the old rate, such rate dating from the first of the year.

The new men will be obliged to conform to the same reduction and discipline as the old men, and those thus far shown disqualified for the service of the road will not be continued in it. The old men are to be taken back as the road's business justifies it. In doing so Mr. Wilbur led Mr. Rice to believe that the company is taking the initiative step to restore a good feeling between the employes and itself, and that many orders that were issued during the strike have since been rescinded.

Mr. Rice expressed the hope that the men would join the company in an effort to bring about the condition of things prior to the strike. It is believed that the old men will mostly all be taken back into the service of the road before long.

WIDOW SUES A WIDOWER.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., Jan. 11.—Suit has been entered in the office of the clerk of the circuit court by T. C. Ayres, Esq., attorney for Mrs. Lizzie Bechner, of West Wheeling, this county, against William H. Curly, for $10,000 damages for breach of promise to marry the plaintiff.

The allegation is that on September 30, last, the defendant requested plaintiff to marry him, and upon her consenting, a marriage contract was entered into, to be performed October 31; that the plaintiff made all due preparations, but defendant refused and still refuses to perform his part.

Mrs. Bechner is a widow of 45, with three children, and Curly a wealthy widower, blessed with three children, and five years Mrs. Bechner's senior. There are some spicy and very sugary letters to be read at the trial.

WILL CHANGE THE PLEA.

WASHINGTON, January 11.—The case of Joseph Donan, the alleged crank who was arrested on December 27 and held for sending threatening letters through the mail, was before the grand jury yesterday and Senators Mills, Mr. Daniels, private secretary of the vice president and others appeared as witnesses. The prisoner claims that the only place to hear his case is in the senate of the United States and that he intends to sue the authorities for $10,000. His lawyer states that when the case comes up for trial the plea of insanity will be abandoned and that he will plead lack of jurisdiction, and the defense will summon President Cleveland, Vice President Stevenson, Secretary Lamont and Senators Mills, Sherman, Gordon McPherson and Gray, to show that not one of the letters was dated in Washington.

SUSPECTED OF TWO MURDERS.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., January 11.—William A. Gallew and Michael Flannagan are in jail here under suspicion of being the perpetrators of a double murder in Allegheny county, Md. The men were arrested on warrants issued in that state, and will be held for requisition papers. A mine superintendent named Hilderbrand and an unknown man are the victims of the murder, which occurred several weeks ago. Officers from Maryland have been here several days looking them up.

WILL EXPEND $5,000,000.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., January 11.—Hon. Tom Johnson, in his speech in congress yesterday said, among other things, that the Johnson company, of this city, in which he has a large interest, proposed to change their mill here whether the tariff on steel rails was nothing, 25 per cent or more. This is a public confirmation of what has been discussed here for some time, namely, that the Johnson company contemplates, if, indeed, it has not already perfected plans to erect one of the finest steel rail plants in the country. The amount involved in the proposed enterprise is reliably estimated at $5,000,000.

QUEER WAR REMINISCENCES.

War reminiscences after the lapse of 30 years are sometimes unique and rather calculated to add to the gaiety of historical literature than to its information. The latest specimen of the sort is an anacdote credited to the Rev. Russell H. Conwell as told to illustrate how the valor of obsecure soldiers goes to swell the fame of great Generals. The chronicler relates that shortly after the battle of Lookout Mountain he "sat next to General Thomas on a Tennessee train when a crowd of soldiers on the platform began cheering for 'the hero of Lookout Mountain.'" This is interesting, but not possible, as a crowd on a platform is not under any special obligation for accuracy; but the truly unique feature is reached in the language credited to General Thomas, in the following extract:

"Stop that confounded noise!" indignantly demanded Thomas of his Adjutant. "I don't know whether these men are in earnest and making a mistake, or whether they are guying me. The fact is, if I had had my way the battle would not have been fought. When I heard of the proposed attack it seemed exceedingly foolhardy, and I ordered the plan abandoned; but, in spite of me, while I was protesting, the men had stormed and captured those battlements above the clouds."

This story, which is going the rounds of esteemed contemporaries which might know better, suffers under the fatal misfortune that Thomas had nothing to do with the battle on Lookout Mountain, General Hooker having commanded that portion of General Grant's forces which captured the mountain. The story might be made to fit with more show of foundation to the capture of Missionary Ridge by General Thomas' forces subsequently to the "battle above the clouds," but it is plain that General Thomas never made the remark credited to him for various reasons, among which we may specify three.

First, General Thomas was hardly foolish enough to say that he ordered a plan of attack abandonen when the orders with regard to attacking Braggs' forces were issued by General Grant. Second, the capture of Missionary Ridge was made without any plan of attack, the ardor of the troops having converted a mere demonstration into one of the most brilliant achievements of the war. Third, we may positively assert that a man of General Thomas' solid and accurate qualities never talked about the storm and capture of "those battlements above the clouds" in view of the fact that there never was such a thing as battlement on either Missionary Ridge or Lookout Mountain, and that the fog-clouds which gave the Lookout fight its poetic title were absent from the Missionary Ridge action.

Finally the capture of Missionary Ridge was not a case in which the valor of obscure soldiers added to General Thomas' fame, because he was never given any especial fame for it. It was stated in the early reports of the victory that the troops carried the ridge without orders, and, while subsequent attempts were made to claim credit for other Generals, we never heard of a claim that Thomas did it. His reputation has a solid basis in the battles of Chickamauga and Nashville; but Missionary Ridge has always been known as a victory of the line, carried beyond orders by enthusiasm and rivalry.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases of ten are caused by catarrah, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

GEMS OF THOUGHT.

Wisdom jests as well as preaches.

It costs more to satisfy a vice than to feed a family.

Ugliness has its advantage over beauty—it never fades.

People who blow their own horn seldom furnish good music for other folks.

Too many of us expect others to do better than we are willing to be ourselves.

Men are never so likely to settle a question rightly as when they discuss it freely.

Life may be a stage, but is more like a courthouse, from the fact that it is full of trials.

Our minds are like certain vehicles—when they have little to carry they make much noise about it, but when heavily loaded they run quietly.

SHORTLIDGE IS INSANE.

So Adjudged by the Commission Appointed to Learn His Mental Condition.

CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 10.—Professor S. C. Shortlidge, principal of the Media academy, who shot and killed his pretty young wife, well known in Brooklyn as Marie Dixon Jones, has been adjudged insane by the commission appointed to learn his mental condition. The commission submitted their report to Judge Clayton yesterday, find that Professor Shortlidge was insane on Saturday last when they examined him, without touching upon his mental state when he killed his wife.

The commonwealth was represented by District Attorney W. J. Shaffer, who opposed the prisoner's commitment to an insane asylum, arguing that under the act of assembly an insane criminal cannot be confined in an asylum until he has been tried and convicted or acquitted. Judge Clayton heard argument on both sides and reserved his decision. Professor Shortlidge's present condition is serious, and few of his friends expect him to recover. He is carefully guarded in the county jail, where he daily grows weaker.

HIS HEART MISPLACED.

NEW BRIGHTON, Jan 10.—During the illness of Sampson Wearn, of Beaver Falls, the doctor in attendance insisted that the patient's heart was on the wrong side. After his death an autopsy by Drs. King, Sheets and McCarter actually revealed the fact that the claim was well grounded. On opening the dead man's right breast the hear of normal appearance weight and conformation, was disclosed but there was practically no lung. The left lung was properly placed, of the usual size and in apparently healthy condition; and close to the wall of the chest cavity, at the back, was a miniature lung, or the fragment of one. It had never performed any service as a lung as its construction and character could not have permitted the function of breathing, etc., for the re-vitalizing of blood passed over it by the misplaced heart on the same side with it.

Wearn had breathed all his life with one lung, and seemed to have had enough of the breath of life under ordinary conditions. The case is one of the rarest of nature's anatomy, and it will be treated learnedly in detail in the medical journals.

DIED OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE

READING, Pa., January 10.—Henry S. Eckert, aged 63 president of the Farmers' National bank and Reading's wealthiest citizen, died this evening of Bright's disease. About ten days ago the deceased, accompanied by members of his family, went to Florida for the benefit of his health. While there he became worse and was brought home, arriving in Reading this morning. While on the way north he became unconscious and remained in that condition until his death, a period of three days. The deceased has been identified with financial and business concers for many years and was well known throught out the state.

Mr. Eckert was one of the directors of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company of Philadelphia, and identified with other leading enterprises of that city, besides being ex-president of the East Pennsylvania Pig Iron association.

VAILLANT MUST DIE.

PARIS, Jan. 10.—Auguste Vaillant, the anarchist who, on December 9 last, exploded a bomb in the chambers of deputies, was to-day adjudged guilty and sentenced to death. The jury was out only twenty-five minutes, as Vaillant had boasted of his crime. Vaillant sprang to his feet and shouted: "It is death. I thank you for it."

The court then retired to deliberate upon the finding of the jury and to decide upon the sentence. Upon the return of the court the presiding judge announced the sentence of death, and Vaillant, upon hearing the words which condemned him to the guillotine, shouted, "Vive l'anarchie."

Vaillant has refused to sign an appeal to the court of cessation against his sentence.

WHEN WAR IS DECLARED

Against a man's happiness by his stomach, the enemy may be pacified and brought speedily and easily to terms. That potent regulator of digestion, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, disciplines the rebellious organ thoroughly. Indigestion arises from weakness of the stomach, and the food in it, for want of the power to digest, decomposes and acidfies, giving rise to heartburn, flatulence and pain, besides a multitude of symptoms both changeful and perplexing. But peace soon reigns when the great stomachic is resorted to and used with persistence. Dyspepsia gives rise to morbid discomposure of mind, and even sleepleseness and hypochondria in chronic cases. To the complete dismissal of these the Bitters is fully adequate. Liver complaint, constipation, debility, rheumatism and malaria are completely subdued by this genial medicine.

DEATH OF ADMIRAL FAIRFAX.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Jan. 10.—Admiral Donald McNeill Fairfax, of the United States navy, retired, died at his home here this morning after an illness of a few days of pneumonia. He was aged 70 years. One son survives him, also a widow, who was a daughter of the late Rear Admiral Andrew Hull Foote, and four step daughters. Admiral Fairfax was retired by reason of forty years' service some years ago, and has since lived in Washington and Hagerstown.

TOBACCO HABIT EASILY CURED.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:
DEAR SIR:—I have been using your cure for tobacco habit, and found it would do what you claim for it. I used ten cents worth of the strongest chewing tobacco a day, and from one to five cigars; or I would smoke from ten to forty pipes of tobacco. Have chewed and smoked for twenty-five years, and two packages of your Tablets cured me so I have no desire for it.
B. M. JAYLORD, Leslie, Mich.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—Some time ago I sent for $1.00 worth of your Tablets for Tobacco Habit. I received them all right and, although I was both a heavy smoker and chewer, they did the work in less than three days. I am cured.
Truly yours, MATHEW JOHNSON, P. O. Box 47.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—It gives me pleasure to say a word of praise for your Tablets. My son was formerly a victim to liquor, and through a friend, I was led to try your Tablets. He was a constant drinker, but after using your Tablets has entirely quit drinking and will not touch liquor of any kind. I have written [illegible] you, in order to know the cure was permanent.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL CO.:—GENTLEMEN:—Your Tablets have performed a wonderful cure in my case. I have used morphine, hyperdermically, for seven years, and have been using it for the past two years. I used two packages of your Tablets, and without any effort on my part [illegible]

—The Old Fort hotel, of which Mrs. John Odenkirk will discontinue the management in the spring has been rented by Edward Ruhl, son of D. H. Ruhl, of Spring Mills. He will take posession about April 1st.

—The creamery at Salona caught fire Wednesday afternoon from sparks from the stack. The roof and upper portion of the building were damaged to the amount of about $100. The flames were soon extinguished.

—Negotiations to supply State prisons with air ships, are under way. By this means a prison guard could take a flight, locate an escaping prisoner and bring him back in the time usually occupied in telegraphing instructions.

—This must be Hicks' weather. Snow, wind and cold; the only thing is that the spell is a little delayed, it should have been here a week ago but, owing to the rough roads and hard times, it probably couldn't get here any sooner.

—The Bellefonte Minstrel company are preparing to give a performance in the opera house, February 22nd, for the benefit of the Logan fire company. The boys always gave very creditable performances, and no doubt will be quite liberally patronized.

—A Bishop street young lady was without doubt the most flurried female the other Sunday in severe counties when she discovered, after coming out of church, that her brand new hat was adorned with a tag whereupon was the legend, "Reduced to $2.75."

—The "Woman about Town" in the Williamsport Republican of Thursday has some very pertinent criticisms on an item which recently appeared in a Bellefonte paper. It might be well for our editorial brethren to look it up and see whose toes were trod upon.

—H. C. Quigley, Esq., on Friday, purchased at Sheriff's sale the store of T. Clayton Brown. Mr. Quigley acted for the assignees, several city boot and shoe firms. The store is again open for business and sale of goods and for the present will be under the management of Mr. Brown, who will sell for the purchasers.

—The "Little Nugget" company held forth at the opera house Thursday evening. There was a small audience but the performance was of the best. Mr. Cawthorn, as Barney O Brady, is a character that cannot be excelled, while Little Nugget was even better than ever before. The dancing of Orient Anson was the best seen in the opera house for a long time.

—The funeral of Mr. A. J. Cruse took place from his late residence on East Linn street Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Wm. Laurie, D. D., preached a most appropriate and affecting sermon. The pall bearers were, Messrs. W. L. Daggett, Hammon Sechler, John L. Kurtz, Robert Miller, John I. Potter and William R. Jenkins. Interment in the Union cemetery.

A RETIRED BUSINESS WOMAN.

A Page From Her History.

The important experiences of others are interesting. The following is no exception: "I had been troubled with heart disease 25 years, much of that time very seriously. For five years I was treated by one physician continuously. I was in business, but obliged to retire on account of my health. A physician told my friends that I could not live a month. My feet and limbs were badly swollen, and I was indeed in a serious condition when a gentleman directed my attention to Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and said that his sister, who had been afflicted with heart disease, had been cured by the remedy, and was again a strong, healthy woman. I purchased a bottle of the Heart Cure, and in less than an hour after taking the first dose I could feel a decided improvement in the circulation of my blood. When I had taken three doses I could move my ankles, something I had not done for months, and my limbs had been swollen so long that they seemed almost putrified. Before I had taken one bottle of the New Heart Cure the swelling had all gone down, and I was so much better that I did my own work. On my recommendation six others are taking this valuable remedy."—Mrs. Morgan, 509 W. Harrison St., Chicago, Ill.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, a discovery of an eminent specialist in heart disease, is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from all opiates or dangerous drugs.

HAD A HORRIBLE DEATH.

Frank B. Mokle Was Instantly Killed Yesterday in the Pittsburg Division Round House.

The following particulars of the sad death of a Centre county young man, we glean from the Altoona Times. The gentleman is known by people in Bellefonte having visited here frequently before his marriage:

Death in a horrible form and altogether unheralded came to Frank B. Mokle in Pittsburg division round house No. 2, between 9 and 10 o'clock Thursday.

Mr. Mokle was employed by the company as a tank patcher and had given instructions to the men under him to have a tank run into the shop that repairs might be begun by a fellow workmen, by name Mr. E. Brotherton. Mr. Mokle himself assisted in starting the tank into the shop from the turn table, at the same time ordering Mr. Brotherton to prepare to stop it by placing a wedge on the track. The victim also picked up a wedge and walked to the left side of the tank, while the other man took up his position on the right side.

Standing with the one end just over the track on which the tank had been run was a heavy trestle, about three feet high, which had been used by some workmen.

Mr. Brotherton, at the appointed place, dropped his wedge on the track, which was oily. Consequently, the wedge refused to act properly and moved along with the wheel several inches. Seeing this, Mr. Mokle also stooped down to place his wedge on the track, his hand resting on the trestle. The man on the other side of the car saw his perilous position, but it was too late, and in less than a second Mr. Mokle's head was caught between the "push pole" casting and the trestle, the bolts of the latter, which hold the legs to the platform, penetrating his skull.

Mr. Brotherton immediately called to his assistance Mr. James P. Jacobs, and together they pushed the tank along the track a sufficient distance to remove their shopmate from his awful position. A number of other workmen soon collected to the scene of the fatality, and willing hands tenderly carried the unfortunate man into the open air. After being picked up he gasped several times and all was over. The blood in the mean while was pouring from his nose mouth and from the hole in his head inflicted by the cruel bolt.

Mr. Mokle was conveyed to the company's storehouse and a physician summoned, but before he arrived the spark of life had been extinguished.

The remains were given in charge of R. K. Spicer & Co., undertakers, to be prepared for burial. Coroner Poet was notified and empanelled a jury, who viewed the remains at the undertaking establishment and adjourned to meet at 7 o'clock last evening. The jury re convened at the appointed hour and the testimony of three witnesses—Messers. E. Brotherton, Samuel W. Ganter and James P. Jacobs—was taken. The jury then held a private consultation and rendered the following verdict:

"That the death of the deceased was caused by his head being caught and crushed between an engine tank and a trestle standing on a track in No. 2 round house of the Pennsylvania Railroad company. We believe the death to have been the result of accident, but jury would recommend the use of greater care in keeping their tracks clear of obstructions in the future, and also that more light would afford greater security to workingmen in that department.

Mr. Mokle was born in Lemont, Centre county, Pa., about 23 years ago, where his parents reside. Seven years ago he left the parental roof and located in Altoona, which has since been his place of residence He worked for Mr. Glenn, the feed merchant, for about three years and then entered the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, with which corporation he was associated up until the hour of his untimely death. In both occupations he discharged his duties faithfully and with credit to himself.

On the 20th of April, 1892, the deceased was married to Miss Mary K Ishler a niece of ex-Sheriff William A. Ishler, of Centre county, the ceremony being performed in this city by Rev. E. D. Weigle. The crowning happiness of their married life occurred on Tuesday, Jan 2, when a child was born to them. The sad fate of the father is made doubly distressing by the fact that the mother is still in a critical condition, the result of the confinement, and it is feared the intelligence of her husband's death will prove fatal to her.

Besides his wife and child, Mr. Mokle leaves to mourn their loss his parents and one brother, who reside in Lemont, and also two sisters, Mrs. Annie Webb, of Winterville, O., and Mrs. Sallie Smith, of Lemont. Mr. Hiram Osman, of 14 Walnut avenue, is an uncle of the deceased.

Mr. Mokle was a member of the First Lutheran church, his steps through life having always been guided in the paths of righteousness. During his residence here he surrounded himself with a large circle of friends, to whom his sudden death proved a great shock.

CLEARFIELD LICENSES.

It took all of last week for Judge Gordon to hear the applications for licenses in Clearfield county. Up to this time the new Judge has granted 59 hotel licenses; refused 45, and there are 33 not yet acted upon. 9 restaurants have been granted license, 13 refused, and 8 not acted upon. In addition one distillery and two brewery licenses have been granted, making a summary of 71 granted, 58 refused, and 41 not yet acted upon.

A PECULIAR FAMILY.

A correspondent to the Harrisburg Call has located a very peculiar family at Munson's Station, Clearfield county. The article states: The family is composed of seven children, each of which has a distinctive peculiarity in make-up. The eldest, a boy of 18, has thirteen fingers and thirteen toes. He has seven fingers on his right hand and six on his left, and seven toes on his left foot and six on his right. Next to him is another boy, 16 years old. As long as this boy is quiet no one would suppose that there was anything unusual about him, but the moment he opens his mouth to talk he loses all control of his hands, arms, feet and legs, and they jerk and work and kick around as if they were hung on wires. The boy is slow of speech as his limbs are active, and in answering a simple question, it is no uncommon thing for his legs to have carried him a rod or more away before he is able to articulate yes or no. The third child is a girl, who is a hunchback and a dwarf. She is 14 years old. A boy next to her is deaf and dumb. The fifth child has a bright red birth mark, encircling her neck like a strip of red flannel. It is an inch wide. The other two children are twins, 2 years old—a boy and a girl. The boy's head is covered with a dense growth of hair, while the girl has not the sign of a hair on her head, her poll being as white, bare and shiny as a billiard ball. The girl is fat and the boy lean. When the boy cries the girl laughs heartily, and when the little fellow is merry the girl yells and sheds tears, so that one of them is laughing or crying most of the time.

OUR FATE.

Man is born of woman, spanked by the hired nurse, jerked bald-headed by cranky school-masters and attended by a select and varied assortment of troubles, says an exchange. He lingers in luxury's lap until his paternal ancestors fire him out to begin his battle with the world. He starts a newspaper, his friends promise to support him, but in the hour of need he finds that promises, like three-cent-lamp-chimneys, are easily broken. If he refuses to be sociable with Tom, Dick and Harry, they say he is stuck up, and if he makes intimates of every body he is courting public favor. If he publishes all the news, science, statistics, foreign report and outlook, they say he is too fresh. If he doesen't make a personal of every one in town they feel slighted, and if he does he will finally run across some man who does not like to be personalized, and gets his head punched.

HER 54TH ANNIVERSARY.

Says Warriorsmark correspondent of the Tyrone Herald: Last Thursday being the 54th birthday of Mrs. Zacheous Lower, her brothers and sisters, and sons and daughters came in on a complete surprise to her with well filled baskets of provisions and useful presents. Those present were John F. Mattern and wife, J. H. Mattern and wife, and C. F. York, of Warriorsmark; Mrs. Sue Gray, of Stormstown; Mrs. Robert Stewart, of Pennsylvania Furnace; Mr. and Mrs. Clint Rider, of Marengo; Mr. and Mrs. John Lower. William Lower and family and Edward Lower and family, of Tyrone. A Tyrone photographer took a picture of the happy family.

THE CENTRAL'S NEW OFFICERS.

Superintendent J. W. Gephart returned on Wednesday from Philadelphia where he had been in attendance at a meeting of the stockholders of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, held in that city on Monday. Considerable business of importance was transacted at the meeting and the following officers elected for the ensuing year. President, Walter L. Ross; Vice President, Charles W. Wilhelm; Secretary and Treasurer, William J. McHugh; Directors, Edward L. Welsh, Charles O. Kruger, Robert Valentine and Charles M. Clements.

DEATH OF MRS. GUISWITE.

Mrs. Susan Guiswite, wife of John Guiswite, of Aaronsburg, died on last Saturday aged 66 years. A husband and four children survive her and are mourning the loss of a kind wife and mother. The children are George Guiswite, of Loganton, Luther Guiswite, of Coburn, Mrs. Dal. Brungard and Nathaniel Boob, of Haines township. Deceased was a member of the Lutheran church. Her pastor, Rev. Wolf conducted the funeral services which took place at Wolfe's chapel Wednesday afternoon, and were attended by many relatives and friends.

ALVA KNOWS HOW.

The following complimentary allusion to Mr. A. S. Grow, by the Lock Haven Express, will be read with interest by all of his old friends in this place:

Although the youngest in years A. S. Grow is now the oldest county officials the first floor of the court house, having entered on the third year of his term. He is one of the most efficient and obliging Register and Recorders that ever held the office and if the people of Clinton county know when they are well off, and we believe they do, they will keep "Alva" where he is for another term.

—Skating at Milesburg is said to be very good and a large number of young people from Bellefonte make daily pilgramages down there to enjoy the fascinating sport.

BOARD OF HEALTH ORGANIZED.

On Thursday evening Dr. J. L. Seibert, W. F. Reeder, Esq., Drs. Geo. F. Harris and R. G. H. Hayes, and Col. William Shortlidge, the gentlemen appointed by borough council at its last regular meeting to constitute a Board of Health for Bellefonte, met in the office of W. F. Reeder, Esq., on Allegheny street to perfect an organization. Col. William Shortlidge was unanimously elected President of the Board, and H. C. Quigley, Esq., was chosen secretary.

This being but preliminary to the work in hand, and as the several members are required to be sworn in and file a bond for the faithful performance of their duty, no other work was done. The appointment of a Health Officer for the town was postposed until the next meeting. Bellefonte is a comparatively healthy town but a well organized and thoroughly conducted health board is not a bad thing to have in any town; and then, the law recently passed requires it. Every man on the Bellefonte Board is a man of experience and a practical worker for anything that pertains to the good of the town and there is every reason to suppose that the sanitary condition of Bellefonte will be even better in the future, if such a thing is possible, than it has been in the past.

HOLIDAYS IN 1894.

For the year 1894 the days and dates of important events, anniversaries and holidays will fall as follows: Epiphany, Saturday, January 6; Septuagesima, Saturday, January 21; Shrove Sunday (Fastnacht), February 4; Ash Wednesday February 7; First Sunday in Lent, February 11; St. Valentine's day, Wednesday, February 14; Washington's birthday, Thursday, February 22; St. Patrick's day, Saturday, March 17; Palm Sunday, March 18; Good Friday, March 23; Easter Sunday, March 25; Low Sunday, April 1; Rogation Sunday, April 29th; Ascension day, (Holy Thursday,) May 3; Pentecost, (Whit Sunday), May 18; Trinity Sunday, May 20; Corpus Christi, Thursday, May 24; Decoration day, Wednesday, May 30; St. John's day, Sunday, June 24; Independence day, Wednesday, July 4; Michaelmas day, Saturday, September 29; St. Andrew's day, Friday, November 23; St. Thomas' day, Friday, December 21; Christmas, Tuesday, December 25.

B. AND L. ASSOCIATION.

On Monday evening a branch of the "Washington National Building and Loan Association" was organized at Bellefonte, Pa. The officers elected were James Schofield, president; John Q. Miles, vice-president; J. K. Barnhart, treasurer; Oscar Wetzel, secretary; Wm. J. Singer, attorney. Directors: J. H. Barnhart, Charles R. Kurtz, Oscar Wetzel James Schofield, John Q. Miles, Al. S. Garman, Wm. J. Singer, J. A. Finkbinder, C. C. Bell, and S. F. Cherry. The association has the best of standing, is highly rated by Brandstreet's and Dunn's reports and is considered one of the best associations of its kind for an investment. For further particulars apply to either the secretary or treasurer. The branch was organized by Mr. H. C. Smith, of Harrisburg.

MRS. RUH'S WINDFALL.

Mrs. Margaret Ruh, who with her husband lives in the rear of No. 216 Maynard street, Williamsport, has been left a fortune of $64,000 by the will of her grandfather, who lives in Milwaukee, Wis. Her grandfather died several years ago, leaving all his wealth to his wife, with the provision that it go to Mrs. Ruh, two years after the grandmother's death. On December 9 last the grandmother died, so Mrs. Ruh will have to wait until December 9, 1895, to get her money.

MERCANTILE APPRAISER FOR 1894

On Monday last the board of County Commissioners appointed Mr. F. O. Hosterman, of Millheim borough, mercantile appraiser for Centre county. Certainly a good selection, as all who know the gentleman, will testify. His faithful service to the party make Mr. Hosterman especially deserving of this recognition, while his intelligence and excellent business qualifications are ample guarantee of the proper performance of his duties.

HIS NOSE CUT OFF.

Wednesday morning a young son of Mr. Martin Stover, who live south of Bellefonte, was sent to the home of Mr. J. F. Stover, on Beaver street, to borrow a saw. The boy, who is only about eight years old, was riding a colt, and on the way home the animal frightened, jumped to one side and threw the boy off. The lad fell with his face on the saw and his nose was cut off as entirely as if done with the stroke of an axe.

WHAT THE GRIP IS.

The Oil City Blizzard defines lagrippe in the following words: "It is a combination of bad colds, several degrees at once, continual headache, stomach ache, sickness at the stomach, blind staggers, chicken pox, hives, spring halt, seven-year itch, disordered liver, kidney trouble, each bone in one's body trying to ache more than the others, and about forty other indescribable diseases. All of these, never less, sometimes more, at one and the same time."

—The county auditors have about completed their work of auditing the county finances and the statement of their findings is being put in proper shape for publication, which must be done by the first week in February. The showing this year will be very good, considering the unusual expense the county was at during the past twelve months and the very hard times, etc. There was a cash balance in the hands of the treasurer on the first of January of near three thousand dollars.

—Thomas Shaughnesey, our street commissioner, has been doing a good job in decreasing the grade on West Curtin street.

WITHOUT THE

it is easy to steal or ring watches from the pocket. The thief gets the watch in one hand, the chain in the other and gives a short, quick jerk—the ring slips off the watch stem, and away goes the watch, leaving the victim only the chain.

This idea stopped that little game:

The bow has a groove on each end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the grooves, firmly locking the bow to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off.

EDWARD T. TUTEN.

Local Department.

—How does this kind of weather suit you?

—Court commenced this morning and will last three weeks.

—Mr. Alfred Martin, of Tyrone, is a Bellefonte visitor to-day.

—Bellefonters will continue to gaze on the brilliant electric light at night.

—Sheriff Condo's family is increasing—an addition of two during the past twenty-four hours.

Mr. W. B. Krape, of Spring Mills, is shaking hands with his numerous Bellefonte friends to-day.

—Did you see the street lamp on Lamb and Spring streets? It is gas but almost as bright as an arc light.

—The prospects for a good base ball team at State College this year are very promising. How is it with Bellefonte?

—The Magnet is authority for the statement that a "speak easy" is doing a good business in the quiet little village of Lemont.

—While in Philadelphia Mr. Lee Woodcock will take lessons in vocal music. He already is a fine performer and has great talent as a vocalist.

—To morrow (Thursday) Mr. Harry Badger, of Mifflinburg, will wed Miss Myrtle Eberhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Eberhart, of this place.

—Dr. George F. Harris and R. A. Beck were the first to discover the fire this morning. Dr. Harris smelled it, so he says, but we don't know how Beck come to be there.

—The borough authorities should take some action in regard to the blasting in Morris' quarry, north of West Beaver street, as lives and property are endangered thereby.

—The Undine's steamer has been fully repaired. It was this afternoon given a good trial up in the diamond and worked as well as ever. It is needless to say the firemen are pleased.

—The financial standing of the Reformed church is probably the best off of any of the churches in Bellefonte. It has no debts, and assets amounting to about one hundred and forty dollars.

—Mr. William Crain and Miss Cora Fulton, both of Milesburg, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony on Sunday evening last. May they have a long life of uninterrupted bliss and happiness.

—Huntingdon county commissioners are in session only two days in each week—Thursday and Friday. They evidently mean to practice economy as well as preach it for the good of their fellow-officials.

—How's this for the Magnet man? "The most profane man in this section is said to live in Boggs township. He has been known to stand in a ten-acre corn field and swears so that even the corn was shocked."

—In our report of the Galway-Harris wedding Tuesday we omitted to make mention of the numerous presents received by the bride, which were handsome in the extreme and most valuable throughout.

—There are eight boarders in Fort Condo on the hill, patiently waiting for an interwiew with his Honor, Judge Furst. There are also several out on bail to report for an interview with the court at its earliest convenience.

—Now that we have an official board of health there will be less sickness, consequently fewer doctor's bills. With a town council, a board of trade and an official board of health, residents of this place should be exceedingly happy.

—Mr. Charles Schreyer has purchased cigar, confectionery and stationary store of Col. D. S. and F. S. Dunham, located in the basement of the new Crider building. This is a good stand and we predict for the new proprietor great success.

—Grimes' Cellar Door Company held forth in Garman's opera house Tuesday evening, playing to a fair audience. The play was as funny as ever. James B. Mackie is a whole show in himself while Miss Sanford was a model "Pandora." The support throughout was able and the entire performance very creditable.

—Messrs. Thomas Morris and John Furst have completed their arrangements for the holding of a social hop at the Bush House, this place, Friday evening. They have engaged the famous Stopper & Fisk orchestra, of Williamsport, to furnish the music for the occasion. The affair promises to be one of the greatest social events of the season. Guests have been invited from all the neighboring towns and cities.

—The Adelphi Club of Pennsylvania State College, will give a reception at the Bush House, this place, Friday evening, February 6th. The patronesses are Mrs. James A. Beaver, Mrs. Fred P. Emery, Mrs. R. M. Foster, Mrs. C. G. Furst, Mrs. Louisa Bush and Mrs. Cyrus Gordon. The committee in charge are Dr. W. H. Walker, chairman; Profs. H. J. Walters and E. J. Haley; A. F. Damond, '94; A. D. Belt, '94; Boman, '94, and C. E. Kromer, '94.

THERE WILL STILL BE LIGHT.

Council and Electric Light Co. Consummated an Agreement Monday Night.

It was just about 8.15 o'clock on Monday evening when borough council convened with members Potter, Gerberich Williams, Miller, Bush, Bauer and Garman present. Secretary Isaac Mitchell read the minutes of the previous session which were approved as read.

Mr. Robt. McKnight, on behalf of the Bellefonte Gas Co., submitted a proposition to light the streets of Bellefonte with gas at the rate of $1.83 per 60-candle power lamp per month for any number of lamps desired.

J. C. Meyer, Esq, on behalf of a number of citizens resident on Curtin street, presented a request for more light on that thoroughfare. Mr. Meyer thought that Curtin street has not thus far received fair treatment in the matter of light distribution. The gentleman made a strong, logical, even eloquent, appeal for more light.

A communication from the Electric Light company was read asking for a renewal of contract to supply said company with water.

The Street committee reported progress. Water committee reported pipe lowered on Curtin street, also some pipes and plugs repaired. There is a leak in the small reservoir and the waste of water is so great that the pump has to be run sixteen hours a day. Fire and Police committee reported three sections of hose bursted at the fire Monday morning; fire plug at Achenbach's jewelry store broken, and the wreck of the Undine steamer. The Nuisance and Finnace committees had no reports to make.

The special committee, composed of the Finance and Street committees, appointed to make arrangements with the Electric Light company for street lighting, reported that nothing definite had deen done.

Regarding the pavement broken by the wreck of the Undine steamer Monday morning, the borough solicitor advised that, inasmuch as Mr. Aikens, the property owner, had done nothing to cause the damage done, it was the business of the borough to make all repairs.

Mr. Frank McCoy, president of the Edison Electric Illuminating company, was present and made a proposition to extend the contract for street lighting as is now in existence, for a period of three years, instead for one for year, as council had voted at a previous meeting.

Regarding the broken pavement on Alleghenny street, at Aikens' corner, the president instructed the street committee to confer with the borough solicitor and, if it was found that the borough was strictly liable, to make all necessary repairs as soon as possible.

The street lighting question was then taken up. Mr. Miller stated that to put up a total of 95 gas lamps would cost the borough for light about $2,000 per year, as against $3,255, the cost under the present system and contract. Mr. Miller moved that the proposition of the Bellefonte gas company be accepted. As Miller was out of order his motion was not seconded. Then the old question of electric light came up. Mr. McCoy made another proposition that they would make a contract with the borough for one year, provided the borough would bear the expense of any further extension ordered. After some little debate council voted to accept the proposition.

Council also voted to pay the expense of repairing the Undine Steamer. Several other questions of minor inportance were discussed and council adjourned after approving the following bills:

Water Pay Roll	$62.01
Bellefonte Supply House	134.14
Street Pay roll	59.50
James Harris, board walk	160.00
Isaac Mitchell	1.50
Police Pay roll	35.00
E. K. Rhoads, coal	5.20
Total Amount	$457.44

CENTRE COUNTY IN IT.

The Pittsburg Times will give a summer trip to the sea shore to the twenty-five most popular school teachers from all over the State of Pennsylvania, their popularity to be determined by ballots. A large number have already been voted for and among the list are the following Centre county teachers:

Misses Bessie Dorworth, Annie McCafferty, Laura H. Wright, Carrie Weaver, Bellefonte; Ada Morgan, Clara Lukens, Helen Fershey, Bertha Walker, and Jean K. Baird, Philipsburg; Bessie I. Stroop, Lydia L. Taylor, Frances B. Gregg, Milesburg; Rose B. Morris, A. S. Auman, Millheim; Kate Reeser, Snow Shoe; Maggie Hanna, Centre Hall; Annie McWilliams, Pine Grove, and Theodore Pletcher, Howard.

From the above list it would seem as if there is one or more that might be given enough ballots to win for him or her a free trip during the summer vacation, which would be a just recognition of Centre county teachers. Therefore, let every person in the county, who is desirous of seeing the teachers keep apace with others in Pennsylvania, do all they can for their chosen one, and the result may be most gratifying.

WAGNER ESTATE APPRAISED.

In accordance with a writ of partition issued out of the Orphan's Court of Centre county, Sheriff Condo this morning went to Milesburg to appraise the estate of the late John M. Wagner, deceased. The board of appraisers chosen for the work were Messrs. John Q. Miles, John A. Rupp, John L. Dunlap, of Bellefonte, and Andrew Fetzer, J. A. Crider and Robert F. Holmes, of Milesburg. John Keichline, Esq., went along as an administrator and N. B. Spangler, as representative for the heirs.

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.

One of the principal attractions at the High School literary exercises on Monday was the debate on the question, "Resolved, That Utah should be admitted as a State to the Union." The question was most ably, as well as humorously, discussed on both sides by Messrs. Kelley, Runkle and Blair for the affirmative, and Messrs. Fortney, Keichline and Strohm for the negative. The young men made brief speeches but their arguments were well put and seasonable. While the judges were consulting as to the winners the following programme of rhetoricals was gone through with:

Essay, "Horses," John Larimer.
Declamation, Morris Otto.
Essay, "America," Clarence Harper.
" "Temperance," Olive Steele.
" "Christmas," Grace Blackford.
Recitation, Mamie Jamison.
Essay, "Christmas," Mollie Davidson.
Recitation, Bertha Atwood.
An original recitation, Mattie Faxon.
Essay, "Rivers," Dale Musser.
" "History," James Wright.
" "Stars and Stripes," Bessie Orris.
Recitation, Gertie Stonerode.
Essay, "School Days," Mattie McEntire.
Recitation, Katie Wyland.
Essay, "Sparta," Blanche Underwood.
Recitation, Mollie Crotty.
Essay, "The express system," Fannie Elmore.
Recitation, Kitty Heylmun.
Essay, "The mail service," Katie Lieb.
Declamation, Charles McClure.
Essay, "Pine," Eddie McGarvey.
Recitation, Alice Kelley.

The program being exhausted the judges on the debate, Messrs. Gray Hastings, Charles McClure and Roy McCalmont, entered and gave their decision in favor of the negative.

THE MRS. LOHR CASE.

In the case of Mrs. Lohr vs. the Borough of Philipsburg, which was tried at the November term of court and a verdict rendered in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $1800, Judge Furst on Monday filed the following decree on the reserved points of law:

And now, January 15, 1894, upon due consideration of this case, the reserve question is answered in the affirmative. And upon full consideration of the motion for a new trial, it is ordered adjudged and decreed, that upon Plaintiff filing within twenty days a remittitur of all of the verdict in excess of $1050.00, as of the date of the verdict, then judgment to be entered thereon for said sum with interest from date of verdict and costs. But should Plaintiff refuse within said time to file said remittitur then Rule for new trial to be made absolute.

BY THE COURT

If Defendant refuse to file an offer accepting said terms within said time, then Rule for new trial to be refused and judgment to be entered upon the verdict. If accepted, then judgment to be entered for $1050 as provided above.

BY THE COURT.

This yirtually gives to Mrs. Lohr the above stated sum.

DEATH OF MARY DEHASS.

Miss Mary DeHaas died at her home on North Spring street, on Tuesday at three o'clock. She and another sister, daughters of the well-known lumberman of long ago, Mr. Jacob DeHaas, of Marsh Creek, moved to Bellefonte from Romola last Spring occupying the house owned by Ed. Powers, on Spring street, next door to ex-Sheriff Klines. Miss Mary was aged about fifty years. She had not been ill long.

The funeral will be held on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, W. H. Neff, the Howard undertaker, will be in charge. The remains will be taken on the 9.33 train to Howard from where they will be conveyed to Romola where service will be held in the church.

—At the annual meeting of the Athletic Association of Pennsylvania State College held last week the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Beaver, '95; vice-president, Harris, '95; secretary, Moore, '95; General, Athletic Committee, Burkett, '95; Harris, '95; Spencer, '95; Connelly, '97; and Robison, '97; Base Ball Committee, Morrow, '96; Mackey, '95; Thomas, '96; Robison, '97, and Rice, '97.

—There is a letter in the Lock Haven postoffice for Miss Bertha Atwood.

GALWAY—HARRIS.

A Brilliant Wedding at High Noon Today. Full particulars.

One of the most brilliant and fashionable home weddings that has occurred in Bellefonte for some time past took place at high noon (12 o'clock) Tuesday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harris, on East Howard street, and which was the occasion of the marriage of their only daughter, Miss Lydia Toner Harris, to Mr William H. Galway, of Radford, Virginia.

The parlors of the Harris residence were most beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens making a most appropriate bower for the consummation of such an important event. It lacked but a few minutes of twelve o'clock when, the guests—about forty in number—having all arrived the bride and groom took their places beneath a handsomely arranged canopy of smilax with a back-ground of evergreen, potted plants and flowers, and the officiating minister, Rev. W. A. Houck, of the M. E. church, gracefully stepped forward and with that wonderful dignity all his own, proceeded to speak the beautiful ceremony that united "until death do ye part" the two young people so well and favorably known in Bellefonte society. The bride and groom were unattended.

Miss Harris was gowned in a robe of white Duchess Glace silk, with court train, trimmed with Duchess lace and diamond pendant. She carried a large bouquet of white roses. To say that she looked lovely would but faintly express the bewitching charm of her appearance. The groom looked every bit the gentlemanhe is in the customary suit of black.

Following the marriage ceremony and congratulations, which were most heartily showered upon the young people, an elaborate wedding breakfast was served, at the conclusion of which the bride and groom, accompanied by many of their young friends, were driven to the Pennsylvania railroad depot, from where they departed on the 2.12 train east for a brief wedding tour before settling down in their new home in Radford, Va.

The bride is so well known in Bellefonte society, where she has been a belle and a favorite to need any comment, only to say that lucky is the man who has won her for his own. The groom is a prominent business man, now located in Radford, Va., where he is cashier of the Radford Trust Company. He is a gentleman of most noble qualities. We extend our heartiest congratulations.

DEATH OF COL. JAMES CULL.

Word has been received in this place of the death on December 22, 1893, at his home in Larue, Marion county, Ohio, of Col. James Cull, an old resident of Centre county, and the step-father of Messrs. Charles and D. M. Glenn. The direct cause of his death was an attack of the grip.

Colonel Cull was born in Cumberland county, in 1814, thus being at the time of his death 79 years, 7 months and 12 days old. He came to Centre county in 1820 and engaged in business. From here he went as a volunteer to the war and served faithfully through those long years of hardship and suffering. He was at one time proprietor of the Mountain House, in Snow Shoe. His first wife, the mother of the Messrs. Glenn, died in 1846. Mr. Cull then married a Miss Forseman, an aunt of Messrs. Horbison and William Holt, both of this county. Two children were the result of this union, and again Mr. Cull was called upon to mourn the death of his beloved wife, which occurred in September, 1888. It was only about a dozen years or so since he took his departure from the State of his nativity and journeyed to Ohio, where he engaged in farming near Larue, and where he continued to reside until the time of his death. And thus one by one the old soldiers are passing away to a land where there can be no wars nor rumors of wars, but where all is peace and gladness.

WHERE THEY ARE.

Beezer brothers' butcher shop, which was burned out by Monday morning's fire, has been moved into the vacant room in the Brockerhoff House block, between Blair's jewelry store and the hotel office, and is now fully stocked and doing their usual good business.

Daniel Garman is fixing up a room in the basement of his hotel building, just west of the main entrance, for a barber shop, and into this Mesh Graham will soon find himself established as neat and bright as a new pin.

The location of the Centre Democrat, for the present, is also in the Garman building. As to Crawford and Heinle & Smith, we have not yet learned whether they have newly located or not.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD.

A general meeting will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms, Crider's block, tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. Ladies are cordially invited and requested by their presence and co operation to help on the work. Further contributions of clothing, shoes, groceries, and money, are solicited and will be received by members of the guild at the rooms on Saturday from 2 to 4 o'clock p. m.

Y. M. C. A. LADIES AUXILIARY.

A number of ladies interested in the work for young men, met in the association parlor Tuesday afternoon to complete the organizing of the auxiliary. Several committees were appointed and work will be begun at once to make the building more attractive to the young men and boys of our city. A chicken and waffle supper will be held next Tuesday evening in the room. The ladies are very enthusiastic that this should be a success, and will look to our people for co-operation and support.

A $12,981.31 VERDICT.

The Amount Philip Collins Will Get from the Bellefonte Central. Other Court News.

The case of Philip Collins against the Bellefonte Central Railroad Company, which came up for trial on Monday morning, occupied all of that day, all of Tuesday and until nine o'clock on Wednesday when the jury retired. They were out not quite two hours when they completed their findings and returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $12,981.31.

The nature of this case is about as follows: When the railroad was built from this place to State College, it was built by the Collins brothers, contractors, and named the Buffalo Run railroad. The road was owned by a corporation of stockholders and not by the Collins brothers, who in order to have sufficient rolling stock to operate the same, purchased and put on the road one locomotive, two passenger cars, one combination car, one baggage car, one observation car, six gondolas and and one hand car. This stock he purchased and paid for himself.

In the fall of 1890 or 1891 the Buffalo Run railroad company got into financial difficulty and the road was sold at forced sale in December of the same year. It was purchased by mostly new men and the name changed from Buffalo Run railroad company to the Bellefonte Central rail road company. When the legal transfer papers were made to the new company they included road bed and rolling stock. Philip Collins put in a claim for the above mentioned rolling stock, but his claim was unrecoginzed by the new company. In August, 1892, Mr. Collins brought suit to recover the value of same, which he placed at $12,000, and the case was this week tried for the first time. All the evidence was strongly in favor of the plaintiff, and the price asked considered fair in the opinion of a large number of important witnesses, that the jury had little trouble in reaching a verdict, which was for the full amount of the claim asked, with interest from date of suit.

The case was thoroughly tried, being conducted by able attorneys on both sides. Beaver & Dale and Love represented the plaintiff, and John Blanchard, Bower and Orvis the defendants. It is not yet known whether the defendants will allow the case to end here or carry it to the Supreme Court.

OTHER COURT NEWS.

On the completion of the Philip Collins vs Bellefonte Central R. R. Company cause the case of Alfred Jones, use of, vs The Pennsylvania State College was taken up. This is an action brought to recover balance on contract for work done at the College by Jones & Langdon, of Philipsburg. The College authorities, on inspecting said work at its completion, claimed it did not come up to the contract and refused to pay in full. The plaintiffs allege that the work was done as per agreement and brought suit to recover the full amount.

The next case for trial is the breach of promise case of Carrie V. Wilson against Harry McCauley. There is promise of some rare developments during the progress of this trial.
